Reading with John Clare Sara Guyer, 2015-05-01 Reading with John Clare argues that at the heart of contemporary biopolitical thinking is an insistent repression of poetry By returning to the moment at which biopolitics is said to emerge simultaneously with romanticism this project renews our understanding of the operations of contemporary politics and its relation to aesthetics across two centuries Guyer focuses on a single exemplary case the poetry and autobiographical writing of the British poet John Clare 1793 1864 Reading Clare in combination with contemporary theories of biopolitics Guyer reinterprets romanticism s political legacies specifically the belief that romanticism is a direct precursor to the violent nationalisms and redemptive environmentalisms of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Guyer offers an alternative account of many of romanticism s foundational concepts like home genius creativity and organicism She shows that contemporary critical theories of biopolitics despite repeatedly dismissing the aesthetic or poetic dimensions of power as a culpable ideology emerge within the same rhetorical tradition as the romanticism they denounce The book thus compels a rethinking of the biopolitical critique of poetry and an attendant reconsideration of romanticism and its concepts

Semiotics of Re-reading Anthony Julian Tamburri,2003 This study examines the necessity of reading retrospectively In this manner the reader who comes along after the composition of an author s opus may better understand the author s earlier works after reading a later one In contrast to a reader contemporary to the text who does not have the opportunity of hind sight this special reader recto lector draws on information gathered from a later text in order to understand a previously composed text For example the relationship between Aldo Palazzeschi s riflessi 1908 and his later manifestoes 1914 1915 amply demonstrates the value and necessity of such a reading process this is especially true with regard to non canonical writers as is Palazzeschi The retro lector of riflessi therefore comes away with an interpretation both different and more complete than that which the contemporary reader would acquire after a strict canonical reading Along with works by Palazzeschi Semiotics of Re reading also examines poetry by Guido Gozzano and short fiction by Italo Calvino Passing
