Are We Having Fun Yet? Joyce Jennison, 2005-05 Clutching an armload of baseball mitts and billiard balls I ran after my brood trying to pick up items that were blocking the aisles I added a pair of tennis shoes several baseball caps the camping silverware and a handful of sweat bands to my cache Meanwhile the wiffle balls bounced off my legs and I shouted for my wrecking crew to stop Finally they ran into a display and I pounced on them Unfortunately I dropped most of my huge armload but I had them Suddenly I became aware of the spectacle we had created All around there were people quietly staring at us Everywhere I looked I saw devastation created by my children Had the store sustained a 7.5 earthquake the damage could not have been worse I honestly didn't know what to do Author Joyce Jennison firmly believes that if enough time passes one will be able to see humor in what once was a very trying experience On that premise she has written a very amusing satirical account of her family's life adventures Jump on board and enjoy the wild ride through some of the Jennison's most unbelievable and hysterical happenings
