Argumentation Theory And The Rhetoric Of Assent:

Argumentation Theory and the Rhetoric of Assent David Williams, Michael David Hazen, 2006-02-05 The themes of the essays in Argumentation Theory and the Rhetoric of Assent all coalesce around the general question When if ever is assent justified The question immediately triggers complex and multifaceted considerations of argument and ultimately power In parsing out the nature of assent the essays take diverse approaches aesthetic and symbolist rationalistic and formalistic field theory various conceptualizations of a public sphere etc Together they offer an insightful exploration of an exciting new terrain argumentation studies

Insight and Solidarity William Rehg, 1997-04-30 Discourse ethics represents an exciting new development in neo Kantian moral theory William Rehg offers an insightful introduction to its complex theorization by its major proponent Jürgen Habermas and demonstrates how discourse ethics allows one to overcome the principal criticisms that have been leveled against neo Kantianism Addressing both communitarian critics who argue that universalist conceptions of justice sever moral deliberation from community traditions and feminist advocates of the ethics of care who stress the moral significance of caring for other individuals Rehg shows that discourse ethics combines impartiality with solidarity He provides the first systematic reconstruction of Habermas's theory and explores its relationship to the work of such contemporary philosophers as Charles Taylor His book articulates a bold alternative to the split between the right and the good in moral theory and will greatly interest philosophers social and legal scholars and political theorists

Argumentation and Advocacy, 2004

The Concept of Argument Harald R. Wohlrapp, 2014-06-26 Arguing that our attachment to Aristotelian modes of discourse makes a revision of their conceptual foundations long overdue the author proposes the consideration of unacknowledged factors that play a central role in argument itself These are in particular the subjective imprint and the dynamics of argumentation Their inclusion in a four dimensional framework subjective objective structural procedural and the focus on thesis validity allow for a more realistic view of our discourse practice Exhaustive analyses of fascinating historical and contemporary arguments are provided These range from Columbus's advocacy of the Western Passage to India over the trial of King Louis XVI during the French Revolution to today's highly charged controversies surrounding euthanasia and embryo research Excavating foundational issues such as the purpose of argument itself assent of an audience or critical examination of validity claims and the contested role of argument as a generator of knowledge the book culminates in a discussion of the relationship between rationality and reasonableness and criticizes the restrictions of rational argument relying on fixed logical economic or cultural criteria that in reality are mutable Here a true open argument requires the infusion of Paul Lorenzen's principle of transsubjectivity which recognizes but transcends the partiality of the individual and which can be seen in the pragmatic and expanding consensus that humanity can control itself to safeguard the future of a fragile damaged world

Warranting Assent Edward Schiappa, 1995-01-01 This book is a book about how individuals decide that arguments or excuses are valid or invalid sound or unsound strong or weak ethical or unethical with many examples and applications Crucial Concepts in Argumentation Theory F. H. van Eemeren, 2001

Crucial Concepts in Argumentation Theory is a collection of essays that discuss a series of important issues in the study of argumentation. The essays describe the concepts that are crucial to argumentational research and the various ways these concepts have been approached. The essays explore such issues as points of view, unexpressed premises, argument schemes, argumentation structures, fallacies, argument interpretation and reconstruction, and argumentation in law. Each of the essays provides interested readers with an overview of the literature that can serve as a point of departure for further study.

Argumentation and Debate Austin J. Freeley, David L. Steinberg, 2005 This reviewer praised text presents a clear and concise explanation of argumentation and provides models for good argumentation particularly as it applies to academic debate

From Sovietology to Postcoloniality Janusz Korek, Södertörns högskola, 2007 A Voice of Their Own, 1991 A Voice of Their Own explores the consciousness raising role of the American suffrage press of the latter half of the 19th century. From the first women's rights convention, a modest gathering of 300 sympathizers led by Elizabeth Cady Stanton, grew the ever-expanding movement for equal rights, greater protection, and improved opportunities. Although the leaders of that and subsequent conventions realized that such public rallies with their exhortative speeches were crucial in gaining support for the movement, they also recognized the potential impact of another medium: the women's suffrage periodicals written and published by and expressly for women. The 11 essays of this volume demonstrate how the suffrage press in such works as Woman's Journal, Woman's Tribune, Woman's Exponent, and Farmer's Wife was able to educate an audience of women readers, create a sense of community among them, and help alter their self-image.

Twentieth-Century Rhetorics and Rhetoricians Michael G. Moran, Michelle Ballif, 2000-08-30 Rhetoric and rhetorical theory have been gaining in prominence throughout the 20th century. As leaders in all fields give careful attention to issues in communication, rhetoric becomes increasingly central to a range of disciplines. Many of these leaders have shaped rhetorical theory through their work in other fields, and rhetoric becomes more and more difficult to define and delimit. This reference is a guide to major trends and developments in rhetoric and rhetorical theory during the last 100 years. Included are alphabetically arranged entries for major and minor rhetoricians such as Mikhail Bakhtin, Roland Barthes, Wayne Booth, Paul de Man, Jacques Derrida, Peter Elbow, and Linda Flower. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography, an analysis of the figure's rhetorical theory, and a current bibliography of primary and secondary sources. The figures included represent a range of rhetorical schools. An extensive introduction discusses these schools, and the volume concludes with extensive bibliographical material.

Performing Arguments Maura Giles-Watson, 2024-03-04 Performing Arguments Debate in Early English Poetry and Drama proposes a fresh performance centered view of rhetoric by recovering tracing and analyzing the trope and tradition of aestheticized argumentation as a mode of performance across several early ludic genres Middle English debate poetry the fifteenth century disguising play the Tudor Humanist debate interlude and four Shakespearean works in which the dynamics of debate invite the plays reconsideration under the new rubric of rhetorical problem plays Performing Arguments further establishes a distinction between instrumental argumentation through which an arguer seeks to persuade an opponent or audience and performative argumentation through which the arguer provides an aesthetic display of verbal or intellectual skill with persuasion being of secondary concern or of no concern at all This study also examines rhetorical and performance theories and practices contemporary with the early texts and genres explored and is further influenced by more recent critical perspectives on resonance and reception and theories of audience response and reconstruction

Speaker and Gavel, 1994 Proceedings of the Second International Conference on Argumentation International Society for the Study of Argumentation, 1991 Rhetorical Dimensions of Popular Culture Barry Brummett, 1991 The main argument of this book is that most rhetorical theory defines rhetoric as its manifestations speeches essays poems and so forth It proposes that rhetoric be regarded as the social function that manages meaning a function with many complex manifestations The author develops a theoretical scheme to explain this concept and details principles for critical and pedagogical application of his theory In the second part of the book the author applies theory and critical principles to the complex and fragmented texts of popular culture television programmes science fiction horror films popular periodicals and novels and to the arena of urban race relations
