Archetypal Patterns In Womens Fiction:

Archetypal Patterns in Women's Fiction Annis Pratt, 1981 Archetypal patterns endure because they give expression to perennial dilemmas submerged in the collective unconscious Having examined more than 300 novels by both major and minor women writers over three centuries Annis Pratt perceives in women's fiction distinctive elements of plot characterization image and tone She argues that women's fiction should be read as a mutually illuminative or interrelated field of texts reflecting feminine archetypes that are signals of a repressed tradition in conflict with patriarchal culture Pratt suggests that the archetypal patterns in women's fiction provide a ritual expression containing the potential for the reader's personal transformation and that women's novels constitute literary variations on preliterate folk practices that are available in the realm of imagination even when they have long been absent from day to day life

Archetypal Patterns in Women's Fiction Annis Pratt, 1982 Callisto Myth from Ovid to Atwood Kathleen Wall, 1988-07-01 Kathleen Wall traces the myth through fifteen works of English American and Canadian literature providing a fresh feminist reading of these narratives Among the works analysed are selections by Margaret Atwood Charlotte Bronte Thomas Hardy and George Elliot The resulting text reveals many facets of the realities of women's experience from the Middle Ages to the twentieth century And ultimately Wall shows rape to be an expression of dominance rather than lust giving increased support to the definition suggested by feminists Wall demonstrates that the Callisto myth is a powerful archetype which illustrates both the victimization of women and their search for independence and autonomy an archetype that should not be ignored by modern women

Jungian Literary Criticism Richard P. Sugg, 1992 Using the Greek Goddesses to Create a Well-Lived Life for Women Martha Beck, 2019-01-15 This book brings to life the meaning of the stories of the seven goddesses of Greek mythology Each goddess represents a sacred calling a way of life whose goal is to live for the sake of something greater than oneself Athena is the goddess of wisdom and justice Artemis is the woods woman who protects the natural world Demeter is the goddess of the fertility of the earth and the birth and nurturing of children Hera is the wife of Zeus the king who dedicates her life to creating a high quality of public life through nurturing various community activities Aphrodite is the goddess of creativity Persephone is the victim who was raped by Hades and abducted to the underworld where she punishes those who victimized others while alive and Hestia is the contemplative she who reflects upon human affairs and sees how all the parts fit a larger whole The book will allow readers to recognize themselves and their own sacred passions in these stories Once recognized women can educate themselves and each other They can use the wisdom represented in Greek mythology to create meaningful and complete lives in the context of a culture that is still dominated by men and their passions In this way women will be liberated to do everything they can to leave a better world behind for their children grandchildren and future generations

Jungian Archetypes in 20th Century Women's Fiction Lorelei Cederstrom, 2002. With this the beginning of the new millennium and in the aftermath of the many hundred best lists of the outstanding contributions to culture in the past century Dr Cederstrom was struck with the difference between such lists as they would have been written at the turn of the century and those written of late. It is evident that the literary canon itself has been forced to recognize women's achievements. The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26. Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993. Feminist Theory in Women's Speculative Fiction, 1966-81 Natalie Myra Rosinsky, 1982.

Contemporary Women's Fiction Paulina Palmer, 1989. Symmetry Marc J. Straus, 2000. In this second book of poems oncologist Marc J Straus addresses the hopes and the tragedies of his profession. The work is a commentary on his experience in the medical field and a collection of rich vivid monologues written from the points of view of both doctor and patient. These poems show a rare sensitivity not only to those who are suffering but also to the details that distinguish each life.

Contemporary Adolescent Literature and Culture Maria Nikolajeva, Mary Hilton, 2016-05-13. Offering a wide range of critical perspectives this volume explores the moral, ideological and literary landscapes in fiction and other cultural productions aimed at young adults. Topics examined are adolescence and the natural world, nationhood and identity, the mapping of sexual awakening onto postcolonial awareness, hybridity and trans-racial romance, transgressive sexuality, the sexually abused adolescent body, music as a code for identity formation, representations of adolescent emotion and what neuroscience research tells us about young adult readers, writers and young artists. Throughout the volume explores the ways writers configure their adolescent protagonists as awkward, alienated, rebellious and unhappy so that the figure of the young adult becomes a symbol of wider political and societal concerns. Examining in depth significant contemporary novels including those by Julia Alvarez, Stephenie Meyer, Tamora Pierce, Malorie Blackman and Meg Rosoff among others. Contemporary Adolescent Literature and Culture illuminates the ways in which the cultural constructions adolescent and young adult fiction share some of society's most painful anxieties and contradictions

Feminist Futures--contemporary Women's Speculative Fiction Natalie Myra Rosinsky, 1984 Gynocritics Barbara Godard, 1987 Winner of the Gabrielle Roy Prize for the Best Critical Work 1987 The Dialogue Conference at York University provided an opportunity for a number of scholars to bring a feminist perspective to women's writing in Quebec and English Canada The essays in this volume explore women as readers and writers the collection concludes with the first extensive bibliography of feminist criticism about Canadian and Quebec literature much of which is drawn from unindexed sources

Ritual Passages and Narrative Structures Langdon Elsbree, 1991 This book explores the homology between ritual passages and narrative structures The ways that rites of passage particularly their liminal stage correspond with narrative structures and the advantages of these correspondences for literary criticism and analysis are the central arguments of this study Drawing on a wide range of examples mainly from 19th and 20th Century English and American literature it concentrates on the middle stage of liminality where the identity themes the implications of choice and the values in conflict emerge most clearly Drawing on recent work in anthropology and the other social sciences it suggests new perspectives for understanding the relationships between rite and story and between art and life
