Archipeligo War Of Shadows:

Cold War Shadow F. X. Baskara Tulus Wardaya, 2007      Shadow Dragons James A. Owen, 2010-04-29 The Caretakers of the Imaginarium Geographica are at war The last stones from the Keep of Time are falling and at the request of an old enemy a new tower is being built in our world The old enemy is the Winter King s Shadow and he wields a terrible weapon the Spear of Destiny which can be used to command the shadows of anyone it touches including the protectors of the Archipelago the dragons The Shadow King returns to the Archipelago using the ship the Iron Dragon and enlists an unstoppable army of Dragon Shadows While WWII rages in our world all the caretakers both past and present must come together to save the Archipelago All hope lies with a small group of companions along with mythical knight Don Quixote who must sail beyond the very ends of the Archipelago in search of a broken sword and the only being alive who can repair it a scholar who once upon a time was called Madoc      Shadows of Empire Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Shadows of Empire explores Javanese shadow theater as a staging area for negotiations between colonial power and indigenous traditions Charting the shifting boundaries between myth and history in Javanese Mahabharata and Ramayana tales Laurie J Sears reveals what happens when these stories move from village performances and palace manuscripts into colonial texts and nationalist journals and most recently comic books and novels Historical anthropological and literary in its method and insight this work offers a dramatic reassessment of both Javanese literary theatrical production and Dutch scholarship on Southeast Asia Though Javanese shadow theater wayang has existed for hundreds of years our knowledge of its history performance practice and role in Javanese society only begins with Dutch documentation and interpretation in the nineteenth century Analyzing the Mahabharata and Ramayana tales in relation to court poetry Islamic faith Dutch scholarship and nationalist journals Sears shows how the shadow theater as we know it today must be understood as a hybrid of Javanese and Dutch ideas and interests inseparable from a particular colonial moment In doing so she contributes to a re envisioning of European histories that acknowledges the influence of Asian African and New World cultures on European thought and to a rewriting of colonial and postcolonial Javanese histories that questions the boundaries and content of history and story myth and allegory colonialism and culture Shadows of Empire will appeal not only to specialists in Javanese culture and historians of Indonesia but also to a wide range of scholars in the areas of performance and literature anthropology Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial studies      Shadows of the Prophet Douglas S. Farrer, 2009-06-05 This is the first in depth study of the Malay martial art silat and the first ethnographic account of the Haqqani Islamic Sufi Order Drawing on 12 years of research and practice the author provides a major contribution to the study of Malay culture      Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Celeste Vaughan Curington, 2024-09-13 Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Race Gender and Care Work in Portugal examines the everyday lives of an African descendant care service workforce that labors in an ostensibly anti racial Europe and against the backdrop of the Portuguese colonial empire While much of the literature on global care work has focused on Asian and Latine migrant care workers there is comparatively less research that explicitly examines African care workers and their migration histories to Europe Sociologist Celeste Vaughan Curington focuses on Portugal a European setting with comparatively liberal policies around family settlement and naturalization for migrants In this setting rapid urbanization in the late twentieth century along with a national push to reconcile work and family has shaped the growth of paid home care and cleaning service industries Many researchers focus on informal work settings where immigrant rights are restricted and many workers are undocumented or without permanent residence status Curington instead examines workers who have accessed citizenship or permanent residence status and also explores African women s experiences laboring in care and service industries in the formal market revealing how deeply colonial and intersectional logics of a racialized and international division of reproductive labor in Portugal render these women hyper invisible and hyper visible as appropriate workers in Lisbon
