Architects Of Asia:

Architects of Asia, 1993 P & T Group Matt Davies, 2008 This insightful book shows how P T achieves a harmonious transition from the models of the past into a lively and innovative present New Directions in Tropical Asian Architecture Philip Goad, Anoma Pieris, 2005-01-01 The architecture of the West is well known and recognizable across the world The architecture of Southeast Asia which is inspired by environment and a thriving and distinct culture is a hidden pearl in the world of architectural design In New Directions in Tropical Asian Architecture author Philip Goad explores a region and an architecture that is complex and thriving Featuring extended profiles of the regions most innovative and influential architects this book covers a full complement of their recent projects in tropical Asia with plans drawings beautiful full color photographs and insightful text Inspired by fresh agendas such as simplicity and rethinking congregational spaces the designs in this book dazzle with a bold new perspective The 400 color photographs in this book will put you in beach front scenes where the waves crash only inches from your feet dreaming pool side at glamorous luxury hotels relaxing in a gorgeous contemporary home and finally will bring you face to face with the most innovative architectural concepts in all of Asia Architecture Asia, 1997 Archinesia 04 Imelda Akmal (Editor in Chief), 2013-01-01 Cross Border Architecture Architecture Asia PROFESSOR WU. XIANGNING JIANG (DR LI.), Wu Jiang, Li Xiangning, 2023-03-13 Architecture Asia as the official journal of the Architects Regional Council Asia aims to provide a forum not only for presenting Asian phenomena and their characteristics to the world but also for understanding diversity and multiculturalism within Asia from a global perspective This issue reveals how old buildings can be updated to realise innovation through renovation and features three essays and eleven projects that elaborate this perspective The three essays discuss regenerative architecture in Pakistan that create contemporary examples of traditional architecture the revitalisation of old buildings in Hong Kong China for heritage conservation along the concept of updating the hardware and software of the building and the sharing and regeneration of historical heritage spaces in old towns in Xiamen China The 11 projects accompanied with full colour photos and text descriptions highlight architectural works that showcase the theme of renovation and innovation across projects that include a house library chapel and clinic to reveal how these buildings embody sustainability and innovation and re energise cities Asia Now David N. Buck, 2006 This volume is a pictorial guide to Asia s modern architecture that illustrates why designers and builders are looking eastward for inspiration and new challenges It focuses on buildings throughout the Asian continent Architecture Asia Globalization Locali Architects Regional Council Asia, 2022-12 Architecture Asia as the official journal of the Architects Regional Council Asia aims to provide a forum not only for presenting Asian phenomena and their characteristics to the world but also for understanding diversity and multiculturalism within Asia from a global perspective This issue discusses the topic of globalization and locality through four essays and eleven projects The essays attempt to observe the tension between the different forces of globalization which is being widely debated as a distinguishing trend and also highlight globalization's impact on local architecture as well as the various efforts being taken to ensure local identity and distinctive locality in architecture design. The projects accompanied with full color photos and text descriptions demonstrate the many successful attempts in developing design concepts and methods to cope with the globalization trend while maintaining locality. These essays and projects are carefully selected to represent diversity in project locations and includes locations such as Thailand, India, Japan and China. Architecture Asia, 2003 Asian Architects, 2000

A collection of the work of Architects 49 from the last decade providing the reader with an awareness of the architecture of Thailand. Archinesia 06 Imelda Akmal, 2014-01-01. Craftmanship Within the History of Architecture in Indonesia. In the sixth edition of ARCHINESIA Bookgazine we explore what the Indonesian team of curators does in the 14th International Architecture Exhibition in Venice, Italy that is still going until November 16, 2014. In response to the biennale's title Fundamentals with the theme pitched by Rem Koolhaas to all participants about Absorbing Modernity 1914-2014, the Indonesian team presents a historical record of the influence of craftsmanship and materials in the course of modern Indonesian architecture. This perspective was not widely discussed although given the region's many similarities it would not be a surprise that craftsmanship and materials also play a significant role in other Southeast Asian countries besides Indonesia. It may be that the topic is a reflection of what is happening in cognate countries. BUILT PROJECTS FROM ARCHITECTS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA Vo Trong Nghia Architects.
