Architecture Without Architects:

   Architecture Without Architects Bernard Rudofsky,1987-07 In this pioneering book which has long been established as a classic in its field Bernard Rudofsky introduces communal architecture architecture not produced by architects but by the spontaneous and continuous activity of whole groups of people The author steps outside the narrow definitions that have governed our view of architectural history and shows us that the beauty of the non pedigree architecture often dismissed as accidental resulted from human intelligence applied to human needs Rudofsky considers the philosophy and practical knowledge manifest in this communal architecture as an untapped source of inspiration for the modern industrial man trapped in his chaotic duties Back cover   Architecture Without Architects Bernard Rudofsky,1964 A unique examination of building and culture   Architecture Without Architects Bernard Rudofsky,International Council of the Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),1969   Architecture Without Architects Bernard Rudofsky,Rand Carter,Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),Edward W. experience and speaks directly to the challenges that emerge only after systems have aged If you ve moved beyond style debates and framework comparisons and are now grappling with systems that must survive change pressure and time Software Architecture Principles will change how you think about architecture and responsibility This is a book for people who will inherit systems they did not choose and still be accountable for how they evolve French Encounters with the American Counterculture, 1960-1980 Caroline Maniaque Benton,2011 It is normally asserted that French architects looked to North America for technical lessons in the development of modern architecture in the 1960s but that the French cultural environment was generally hostile to American ideas This book includes interv How Architecture Learned to Speculate Mona Mahall,Asli Serbest,2009 For the first time the speculative in architecture becomes a topic of critical research It is investigated not as idealistic but as strategic acting within endless modernity This modernity implies that speculation as strategic acting is not only applied to economic but also to political and aesthetic values Values become mobile valuations become a play with highs and lows authors architects become winners or losers and culture becomes fashion Includes projects by NL Architects MVRDV Aristide Antonas FAT Ralf Schreiber Pascual Sisto Ant Farm Caspar Stracke OMA JODI Kevin Bauman and others From publisher s website Architecture Without Architects B.
