Life as Art Zachary Simpson, 2012-09-27 Life as Art brings the resources of contemporary aesthetics since Nietzsche to bear on the problems of how one integrates the aesthetic emphases of meaning liberation and creativity into one's daily life By linking together the aesthetic and ethical accounts of critical theorists phenomenologists and existentialists into a coherent view on the artful life Life as Art shows the ways in which much of contemporary Continental theory has been concerned with alternative ways of constructing one's own life Seen as a unified phenomenon life as art signifies an active attempt to create a life which bears the resistance openness and creativity found in artworks

How to Argue & Win Every Time Gerry Spence, 1996-04-15 A noted attorney gives detailed instructions on winning arguments emphasizing such points as learning to speak with the body avoiding being blinded by brilliance and recognizing the power of words as a weapon

Multimodal Approaches to Research and Pedagogy Arlene Archer, Denise Newfield, 2014-03-14 This book brings together social semiotics cultural studies multiliteracies and other approaches in order to theorize very different learning environments giving visibility to the modal effect in a range of disciplines It highlights the ideological nature of discursive practices examines questions of access and argues for transformation of these practices with a constant eye on issues of social justice and equity Contributors argue that we can harness learners' representational resources through making these resources visible and creating less regulated spaces in the curriculum in which they can be used Examples from primary education through to adult continuing education are used throughout the text
