Crossroads The Politics Of Reform And Repression 1976 1986:

CrossRoads Josette Cole,1987 The Limits of Transition: The South African Truth and Reconciliation

Commission 20 Years on Mia Swart,Karin van Marle,2017-08-28 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission was a noble attempt to begin to address the continuing traumatic legacy of Apartheid This interdisciplinary collection critiques the work of the TRC 20 years since its establishment Taking the paralysing political and social crises of the mid 1990s in South Africa as starting point the book contains a collection of responses to the TRC that considers the notions of crisis judgment and social justice It asks whether the current political and social crises in South Africa are linked to the country's post apartheid transitional mechanisms specifically the TRC The fact that the material conditions of the lives of many Apartheid victims have not improved forms a major theme of the book Collectively the book considers the unfinished business of the TRC Political Violence and the Struggle in South Africa Andre du Toit,N.Chabani Manganyi,2016-07-27

This book provides a unique perspective at once scholarly and fully engaged on the political violence in South Africa during The Time of the Comrades in the mid 1980s The work of a group of social scientists and professionals whose own work and thinking have been profoundly affected by the political crisis of that time it provides an in depth research and analysis as well as critical reflections on the difficult political and theoretical issues raised by political violence and the struggle in South Africa Crazy for Democracy Temma Kaplan,2016-01-08 Crazy for Democracy vividly shows through the lives of six women in the United States and South Africa just what can be and is being accomplished to change our lives At a time when we're depressed about democracy pessimistic about race relations and anxious about feminism Crazy for Democracy vividly shows through the lives of six women in the United States and South Africa just what can be and is being accomplished to change our lives In building real social movements to achieve a safe environment win human rights and safeguard their homes these grassroots feminist leaders have been creating democratic institutions to achieve social justice for us all

Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman,2021-06-01 Building on the work of economic historian Douglass North and Ugandan political scholar Mahmood Mamdani Friedman argues that the difficulties besetting South African democracy are legacies of the past not products of the post 1994 era South Africa's democracy is often seen as a story of bright beginnings gone astray a pattern said to be common to Africa The negotiated settlement of 1994 it is claimed ended racial domination and created the foundation for a prosperous democracy but greedy politicians betrayed the promise of a new society In Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman astutely argues that this misreads the nature of contemporary South Africa Building on the work of the economic historian Douglass North and the political thinker Mahmood Mamdani Friedman shows that South African democracy's difficulties are legacies of the pre 1994 past The settlement which ushered in majority rule left intact core features of the apartheid economy and society The economy continues to exclude millions from its benefits while racial hierarchies have proved stubborn apartheid is discredited but the values of the pre 1948 colonial era the period of British colonization still dominate Thus South Africa s democracy supports free elections civil liberties and the rule of law but also continues past patterns of exclusion and domination Friedman reasons that this path dependence is not as is often claimed the result of constitutional compromises in 1994 that left domination untouched This bargain was flawed because it brought not too much compromise but too little Compromises extended political citizenship to all but there were no similar bargains on economic and cultural change Using the work of the radical sociologist Harold Wolpe Friedman shows that only negotiations on a new economy and society can free South Africans from the prison of the past Beyond Self-help Housing Kosta Mathéy,1992 According to the editor The debate about self help housing and its potential contribution to solving the housing problem is at least 50 years old The term refers to the concept that inhabitants must have a part in the planning and running of housing projects enabled by government and supported by industry and commerce It is a concept that is still evolving as theory and practical experience intersect Nineteen contributions detail new thinking and case studies Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Africa Today Ruth Hutchison,Peter F. Gerhart,1972 Townships in Cape Town ,1995 New Left Review ,1991 The Theatre of Violence Don H. Foster,Paul Haupt,Marésa De Beer,2005 This profound and deeply compassionate study aims to reach into the complexities of political violence and to expand our understanding of the patterns of conflict that almost drew South Africans into a vortex of total disintegration during the apartheid era. While many accounts have focused on the victims of state repression, this unique volume documents the often contradictory and confusing stories of those who acknowledge having committed some dreadful deeds. Individuals on various sides of the apartheid divide, from state security structures to the ANC, PAC, and grassroots activists, tell their own stories. The authors also offer the first critical examination of the TRC's amnesty process, show how media representations of perpetrators inform public perceptions, and scrutinise international scholarly reflection on the issue of political violence.
