Ctsmass Is A Sacrifice:

British Books in Print, 1970 The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass Michael McGuckian, 2005 This unique study explores the coherence of the Catholic tradition in relation to the fundamentals of faith It will provide the reader with a contemporary understanding of traditional sacrifice Catholic theology has struggled for an adequate account of the doctrine of sacrifice In this book McGuckian contends that the concept of sacrifice is central to the whole vision of faith The Eucharist makes the Church and the Eucharist is a sacrifice so if we do not understand sacrifice we do not understand the Church The Catholic faith contends that the Eucharist is a sacrifice This introspective and contemplative work gives an intriguing and compelling account of how it actually is The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass Nikolaus Gehr, 1902 The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass Rev Nicholas Gehr, Brother Hermenegild, 2014-10-19 As the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the centre of Catholic worship and life a more profound knowledge of the Mass is considered essential and most desirable for all the faithful but especially for the priest Although literature on this subject is rather abundant the present volume which has been drawn from every available source at the Author's command may not be deemed superfluous Its object is in the main both practical and ascetical to appeal not only to the understanding but also to inflame the heart and to move the will The selection and the treatment of the matter have necessarily been directed to this object As it is not our intention to present a purely scientific and exhaustive treatise on the Eucharistic Sacrifice but to build upon the foundation of scientific studies and inferences a work useful and practical for the clergy certain questions of scientific and historic nature may receive scarcely more than a brief and passing mention Denis the Carthusian In this writing it was not my intention in expounding the words of the Mass as devoutly as I could to raise any question or touch on anything but what might move the heart and excite to devotion Therefore all polemical critical quotations and statements open to contradiction have as much as possible been avoided In disputed points we have always seriously and carefully weighed the reasons pro and con but in the book itself we have merely stated what appeared to us the most solidly grounded As edification and devotion must at all times rest on theological truth and emanate from it it became necessary to present the Dogma and Rite of the Eucharistic Sacrifice clearly thoroughly and correctly according to the spirit and intention of the Church thus only do the ascetical considerations and applications find a solid foundation to rest on For without truth piety is feeble and without piety truth is sterile and void Suarez In the explanation of the Rite we have strictly adhered to the words and actions of the liturgical formulae endeavoring at the same time in accordance with approved ecclesiastical tradition to avoid as far as possible all subjectivism and artificiality A correct and clear understanding as well as frequent consideration of the profound and mystical Rite of the Mass will in all probability be the best means to enable the priest to refrain from a thoughtless habitual mannerism and lead him to celebrate the adorable mysteries of the Altar with becoming attention devotion and reverence The priest who studies this book will moreover find manifold reasoning and argument wherewith to direct the faithful according to their capacity in the proper understanding of the Divine Sacrifice and in their fervent recourse to the Eucharistic fount of grace The authorities of the Church have often impressed upon pastors that this is a chief duty of directors of souls for the conscientious discharge of which they shall have to render an account before God Although this volume is principally intended for the use of the clergy it has been so arranged that the more highly cultured of the laity may also peruse it with profit

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass
Nikolaus Gehr, 1939

He Died Once, but His Sacrifice Lives On: The Mass as Sacrifice: Catholic for a Reason III
Thomas Nash, 2006-03-01

Christ's one sacrifice and His re-presentation of it in the Mass is a profound mystery To help us understand this Thomas Nash gives a detailed outline of the Jewish understanding of sacrifice and how the New Testament authors would have understood Christ's death and its relationship with Eucharist In the Mass the priest remembers the sacrifice of His death and participates in the eternal offering of Christ's death Nash explains however that the Jewish understanding of remembrance was more than just a commemoration when the Hebrews remembered an event God enabled that event to transcend time and impact the present

Sacrifice Godfrey Ashby, Godfrey William Ashby, 1988

Sacrifice was a language used by all but understood by none Regarding this remark as a challenge which suggests that while sacrifice is a language in the widest sense of communication nobody has understood sacrifice Professor Ashby has made his own study of this complex field It is his argument that much has been done in recent years to rehabilitate sacrifice including a greater knowledge of world religions the findings of anthropology and the impact of other cultures So the time has come for a major reappraisal of earlier ideas After an opening chapter on interpretations of sacrifice generally Professor Ashby considers sacrifice first in Hebrew religion and then in Christianity He goes on to focus even more specifically on the Jewish Passover and the Christian eucharist before concluding with the person in whom for Christians all ideas of sacrifice have their focus the crucified and risen Christ

On the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Mass Robert Bellarmine, Robert Bellarmine SJ, 2020-01-21

St Robert Bellarmine was one of the best known of the Counter Reformation theologians by both friend and foe His apologetic writings were the most widely read treatises on theological subjects during the 17th century and they also brought numerous conversions to the Catholic faith Now for the first time St Robert's amazing treatises are available to you in English In this treatise on the Sacrifice of the Mass St Robert divides his work into two topics That the Mass is a Sacrifice and secondly the nature of that Sacrifice namely that the Mass is propitiatory beneficial to others and that the ceremonies of the Mass are ancient and pleasing to God St Robert takes the fight to the Protestants on their own ground defending the Mass from Scripture and how the Church Fathers understood it Then he argues from the consensus of Greek and Latin Fathers and the whole history of the Church to defend the Mass as a sacrifice instituted by Christ Himself St Robert Bellarmine is a masterful defender of the Catholic faith a prince of apologists The controversy over whether the Holy Mass is a true and proper sacrifice was and is among the most hotly debated questions dividing Catholics and Protestants Bellarmine s almost unbelievable erudition is on full display as he thoroughly proves the Catholic doctrine by marshaling arguments from Scripture the Fathers of the Church and human reason But the real thrill for lovers and scholars of liturgy comes in his defense of the various prayers and ceremonies of the Roman Rite of Mass Here is a commentary on the Tridentine Mass by one of the greatest theologians of the Tridentine era Dr John Joy President of the St Albert the Great Center for Scholastic Studies St Robert Bellarmine in this section of the De Controversiis provides the reader with an unparalleled defense of the Catholic theology of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass Many of the objections raised and refuted by St Robert are still applicable today amidst the various theological speculations of our times Steeped in the tradition of the Church this text addresses many aspects of the theology of the Mass in a depth not seen in writings of modern authors The timeliness of the book is evident in our current historical context as many priests and faithful are taking a fresh look at the ancient rite of Mass Fr Chad Ripperger SMD For five years in Chablais I preached with no books other than the Bible and the Great Bellarmine St Francis de Sales

The Sacrifice of the Mass M.

Gavin, Rev M Gavin Sj, Brother Hermenegild, 2013-04-13 With an increasing interest in the Latin Tridentine Mass this work will prove quite useful to those who truly appreciate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass The earnest hope is entertained that this explanation of the Mass will help to a deeper appreciation of the greatest act of worship in the Church It is impossible to have laboured for many years in London without painfully realizing that the Mass is neither known nor understood nor attended nor loved as it deserves Surely there are many Catholics who might with a little self denial hear Mass if not daily at least sometimes in the week If we inquire the reason from those who find time for other things and not for Mass we shall probably learn that they do not understand what they lose Mass is a closed book to them The love self sacrifice and humiliation of a Divine Person lies before them in the Eucharist they have eyes and see not With an intelligent grasp of the doctrine of the Mass they would discover a method of discharging every obligation of the creature to the Creator and of procuring all they want from His gracious bounty Let me explain simply the object of the Mass Mass is the supreme act of worship in which Christ as the Head of our race offers His own Body and Blood in acknowledgment of the Creator s dominion over Him and over all mankind Our Lord is the chief celebrant at every Mass and at the altar renews His profession of perpetual service Reason alone proves the obligation of giving God honour and glory Our best is indeed small whether we consider the deeds performed or the abject condition of every man clad in infirmity from head to foot Our deficiency is supplied in the Mass which gives infinite honour and glory to God s Supreme Majesty One Mass for which we cannot spare half an hour yields more honour and glory to God than the adoration of the blessed in Heaven and of their Queen Once more Thanksgiving is another duty of the creature to the Creator Thank you are almost the first words a mother teaches her child The duty of thanking God is so obvious that any explanation weakens its claims The duty is self evident We are surrounded by the unmerited blessings of Heaven as a fish by the waters of the sea Man is the neediest and most helpless and most ungrateful of all creatures and for him God has done incomparably more than for the angels The Crib the Cross and the Tabernacle are three fountains of mercy and love whence grace floods this earth Man is powerless to thank God for all His benefits The unsearchable riches of Christ paid the debt of gratitude a thousandfold in the first Mass in the Supper Room The Church calls the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ the Eucharist which means thanksgiving just as pain means punishment At the Mass Christ chants His Te Deum in honour of His Father or rather the Mass is His Te Deum and the faithful on earth in Purgatory and Heaven join the song of praise You have received great temporal and spiritual blessings have the Mass offered in thanksgiving and assist at the Holy Sacrifice for the same intention And though we may not aim so high it is useful to remember that the saints recognized mercy even in crushing sorrow Although He should kill me I will trust in Him Job And they thank God at the Mass for sending it to them Once again We are sinners In this all men are akin and we need some Being to appease the anger of God to obtain His forgiveness and to avert or lessen the punishment due to crime Mass is the great appeasing power of the world for Mass is Calvary over again The scene on Calvary is re presented to us in the drama of the Mass Death on Calvary was the consummation of the Sacrifice That death was caused by the separation of the Blood of our Lord from His Body that separation is to use the words of the Council of Trent represented to us placed again before our eyes in the double consecration of bread and wine

On the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Mass St Robert Bellarmine,2020-01-27 St Robert Bellarmine s defense of the Catholic teaching of the Mass that it is a true Sacrifice that it is propitiatory that it is beneficial to the living and the dead and a defense of the prayers of the Mass
