Cuban Counterpoint Tobacco And Sugar:

Cuban Counterpoint, Tobacco and Sugar Fernando Ortiz, 1995 First published in 1940 and long out of print Fernando Ortiz's classic work Cuban Counterpoint is recognized as one of the most important books of Latin American and Caribbean intellectual history Ortiz's examination of the impact of sugar and tobacco on Cuban society is unquestionably the cornerstone of Cuban studies and a key source for work on Caribbean culture generally Ortiz presents his understanding of Cuban history in two complementary sections written in contrasting styles a playful allegorical tale narrated as a counterpoint between tobacco and sugar and a historical analysis of their development as the central agricultural products of the Cuban economy His work shows how transculturation a critical category Ortiz developed to grasp the complex transformation of cultures brought together in the crucible of colonial and imperial histories can be used to illuminate not only the history of Cuba but more generally that of America as well This new edition includes an introductory essay by Fernando Coronil that provides a contrapuntal reading of the relationship between Ortiz's book and its original introduction by the renowned anthropologist Bronislaw Malinowski Arguing for a distinction between theory production and canon formation Coronil demonstrates the value of Ortiz's book for anthropology as well as Cuban Caribbean and Latin American studies and shows Ortiz to be newly relevant to contemporary debates about modernity postmodernism and postcoloniality
