Michelangelo's Double Self-portraits Edith

Balas,2004 For many years scholars have been aware that Michelangelo included his own image in his art In this study Edith Balas discusses two previously unrecognized double self portraits The earliest of these a statue known as the Victory was a private project in which an aging Michelangelo depicted himself surmounted by an idealized alter ego a figure associated with his younger self his beloved friend Tommaso Cavalieri and the David and Goliath theme that preoccupied him through much of his career In the second of these double self portraits The Conversion of Paul in the Pauline Chapel of the Vatican the artist again portraying himself in youth and old age used a central event in sacred history to make a statement about his own spiritual transformation from Neoplatonist paganism to a more orthodox form of Christian piety Dr Balas carefully explores the meaning of both works with reference to Michelangelo s life art and poetry and reveals them to be among the profoundest autobiographical statements in the history of Western art Historic landmarks in the Christian centuries
