Cruelty Of The Desert:

Report of the Mount Desert Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals from 1886 to 1890 Mount Desert Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, R.I.) Standard Printing (Providence, 1890) Stop the abuse against women, Desert Soul (Namibia, English), 2007 Comrades of the Desert Ruth Thompson, 1922 The Cruelty of the Desert Michael Wurster, 1989 The Desert is Yours Erle Stanley Gardner, 1966 Pariah in the Desert Todd S. Garth, 2016-08-29 This is the first book in English on Horacio Quiroga Uruguay 1878 Argentina 1937 a canonical author whose works are read by all advanced students of Spanish in the US and many other countries The study examines Quiroga's work through the theoretical lens of the heroic a lens elaborated in part by means of Quiroga's own disquisitions on the subject and the complementary phenomenon of the monstrous This lens serves to elucidate many evidently obscure and self-contradictory aspects of Quiroga's work and its relation to the context in which he lived That context included the neo-colonial social and economic milieu of Argentina's fast-changing immigrant-charged increasingly materialistic society the growing influence of foreign cultural discourses particularly Hollywood film the conflict between the genders in a society that embraced modernity but resisted changes in gender roles the weight of new scientific discourses especially Darwinian evolution in social and political thought and the impact on pedagogical theory and practice of these multiple changing discourses This study discloses the extraordinary range of Quiroga's work which includes erotic romance science fiction and fantasy psychological occult social satire a great variety of juvenile literature outdoor adventure and most familiar to readers in the United States gothic and naturalist horror The book concludes that Quiroga's consistent imperative of the heroic is essential to reconciling these various evidently incompatible aspects of Quiroga's poetics revealing its theoretical and ethical coherence True Stories of the Great War Francis Trevelyan Miller, 1917 A Desert Named Peace Benjamin C. Brower, 2009-07-07 In the mid-nineteenth century French colonial leaders in Algeria started southward into the Sahara beginning a fifty-year period of violence Lying in the shadow of the colonization of northern Algeria which claimed the lives of over a million people French empire in the Sahara sought power through physical force as it had elsewhere yet violence in the Algerian Sahara followed a more complicated logic than the old argument that it was simply a way to get empire on the cheap A Desert Named Peace examines colonial violence through multiple stories and across several fields of research It presents four cases the military conquests of the French army in the oases and officers' predisposition to use extreme violence in colonial conflicts a spontaneous nighttime attack made by Algerian pastoralists on a French village as notable for its brutality as for its obscure causes the violence of indigenous forms of slavery and the colonial accommodations that preserved it during the era of abolition and the struggles of French Romantics whose debates about art and politics arrived from Paris with disastrous consequences Benjamin Claude Brower uses these different perspectives to reveal the unexpected causes of colonial violence such as France's troubled revolutionary past and its influence on the military's institutional culture the aesthetics of the sublime and its impact on colonial thinking the ecological crises suffered by Saharan pastoralists under colonial rule and the conflicting paths to authority inherent in Algerian Sufism Directly engaging a controversial history A Desert Named Peace offers an important backdrop to understanding the Algerian war for independence 1954 1962 and Algeria s ongoing internal war begun in 1992 between the government and armed groups that claim to fight for an Islamist revolution

Showdown in the Sonoran Desert Ananda Rose,2012-05-01 This book offers reflections on a daunting and controversial ethical question How should we treat the strangers who enter this country illegally To understand the experience of those directly confronted by this problem Ananda Rose traveled to the Sonoran desert at the border between the U S and Mexico There she gathered opinions from Minutemen Border Patrol agents Catholic nuns humanitarian air workers left wing protestors ranchers and other ordinary citizens in southern Arizona She depicts the results of these interviews as two starkly opposed ideological perspectives that of religious activists who embrace a biblically inspired model of hospitality that stresses love of strangers and a borderless compassion and that of law enforcement which is concerned with safety security and strict respect for international borders

Baudrillard (RLE Social Theory) Mike Gane,2014-08-21 Baudrillard is widely recognised as a powerful new force in cultural and social criticism and is often referred to as the High Priest of Postmodernism This study presents a detached assessment of his social thought and his reputation challenging the way his work has been received in postmodernism and proposing a new reading of his contribution to social theory Using many sources currently available only in French Mike Gane provides the keys to understanding Baudrillard s project and reveals the extent and scope of Baudrillard s challenge to modern social theory and cultural criticism He looks at the sources of Baudrillard s ideas analysing how Baudrillard has turned these sources against themselves He describes Baudrillard s dramatic encounter with critical Marxist theory and psychoanalysis showing how Baudrillard s post Marxist writings define through the exploration of fatal theory a new episode in cultural history a period of cultural implosion This balanced account of Baudrillard s social theory emphasises the originality of his work and argues that his significance can only be understood by grasping the paradoxes of his project Baudrillard's work is poetic yet at the same time critical and fatal The Guide of the Desert; Or, Life in the Pampa Gustave Aimard (pseud. [i.e. Olivier Gloux.]), 1878 Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee, 1912
