Cry My Beloved Zimbabwe:

Cry My Beloved Zimbabwe K. Nyamayaro Mufuka, 2002 Cry My Beloved Zimbabwe K. Nyamayaro Mufuka, 2002

As always K Nyamayaro Mufuka is a courageous writer In this book he asks the question do the kleptomaniac rulers of post independent Zimbabwe have a conscience Mufuka s merciless pen spares no one He does not spare even his own family Here is Zimbabwe s renowned author at his best This is a damaging satire on the politics of greed in Zimbabwe under the new postcolonial government of Mukuru Mukuru In 1980 when Zimbabwe achieved its independence it was regarded as a jewel in Africa Twenty years later a vicious one party dictatorship under the leadership of Mukuru Mukuru almost destroyed this dream In this collection of short stories the author takes the subject of conscience as his theme His main character Dr Bogozo is an extremely gifted man Bogozo a founding father of the Revolutionary Party is forced to watch as his dream of a prosperous and free Zimbabwe self aborts and turns into a nightmare His conscience troubles him as he is torn between his political party loyalty and his beloved country K Nyamayaro Mufuka is a gifted storyteller His characters come alive while the readers experience flashes of pain and sorrow A Zimbabwean reviewer once said this is not fiction We can figure out the people whom he is talking about Therefore readers are left with the feeling that the events narrated in these pages are not fictional

I Am an African Joanne Bloch, 2007 Land and Nationalism in Fictions from Southern Africa James

Graham, 2011-01-13 By employing a range of critical perspectives cultural materialist feminist and ecocritical Graham investigates the relation between land and nationalism in South African and Zimbabwean fiction from the 1960s to the present This study discusses a wide range of writing including novels by Coetzee Gordimer Head Hove and Vera Heart of Africa Sihle Khumalo, 2011-03-28 150 years separate two explorers of Africa the Englishman John Hanning Speke and South African Sihle Khumalo Speke set out to discover the source of the Nile and Khumalo to figure out what the hell Speke and men like him were after Khumalo s 2008 journey to Central Africa was not without its challenges First he had to outperform his famous earlier trip and book Dark Continent My Black Arse Then he elected to travel as before by public transport only Which in practice often meant more transit and less transport Giving himself a mere four weeks and propelled by a frank fascination with the Victorian explorers Khumalo set out on a six pronged quest aiming inter alia to ferry across Lake Tanganyika stand on the equator in Uganda bungee jump at the source of the Nile or see if any mountain gorillas were forthcoming none were But it was his emotive visit to the Memorial Centre at Kigali epicentre of the Rwandan genocide that brought home elemental questions What is at the heart of Africa What makes me an African Where lies my centre Heart of Africa is the unputdownable account of a journey that seldom went as planned Khumalo s unfailing eye for the good the bad and the amusing in Africa his refreshing candour and his sheer cheek make this book every bit as delightful as its forerunner

Zimbabwean educator Born in a rural village in 1965 in what was then Rhodesia young Judith grew up in a large and extended family of subsistence farmers She remembers her early years as being carefree peaceful and close to nature and looks back fondly on village marriage celebrations music and dancing Like most in her village she is unaware of the fomenting resentment against white minority rule which has seen the best farmland handed over to white settlers brought into the former British colony This heartfelt social history takes us behind the scenes to show how families were separated villages bombed and strafed people starved civilians massacred and indigenous sons forced into the Rhodesian army It tells us about the barb wired compounds built and encircled with landmines to keep villagers from giving food or support to the freedom fighters This first hand account takes us into the horror of the 15 year guerilla war that finally led to Zimbabwean independence in April 1980 a war that ended Judith s childhood and thrust her into the realities of a brutal 37 year dictatorship that would see rampant corruption and civil strife which is still widespread today Teachers and students of African history will find a modern day Orwellian Animal Farm in these pages one that shows no indications of democracy anytime soon Africa, My Beloved Remigius Kintu,2009 Reflections for the Unfolding Year Alan Wilkinson,2017-10-26 Reflections for the Unfolding Year is a collection of addresses given by Alan Wilkinson Roving over subjects from apartheid to Lent to the ever evolving image of Mary he offers a compassionate response to some of the most painful subjects of the last hundred years as well as a thoughtful reflection on the sacraments of the Church of England what they have meant to our ancestors and what they mean to us today Delving into troubling questions about doubt repentance and what it means when God appears to be silent in times of crisis he draws on sources from all walks of life in order to express how Anglicans feel about fundamental issues such as grief hope and grace as well as most potently their longing for God Alan Wilkinson relates stories about the Church its bishops and its believers with rueful good humour and thoughtfulness leading the reader through more than half a century of his ministry in Portsmouth and elsewhere His portrait of the Church of England showcases both the ordinary and the extraordinary the prosaic and the poetic Through his fluent pen we come to understand more of the lives of the people in the Church such as Desmond Tutu William Temple and Bill Sargent who have made it what it is today catholic reformed and liberal Drum ,2002 Fight My Beloved Continent Issa G. This volume chronicles the story of military aviation in Rhodesia from the early romantic days of bush flying in the 20s and 30s when aircraft were refuelled from jerry cans and landing grounds were often the local golf course In 1939 before the outbreak of World War II the tiny Rhodesian Air Force became the first to take up battle stations The three Rhodesian squadrons served in East Africa the Western Desert Italy and Western Europe At home Rhodesia became a vast training ground for airmen from Britain the Commonwealth and Greece After the war Rhodesia rebuilt its air force on a tiny budget equipping it with Ansons Spitfires Vampires Canberras Hunters and Alouettes In later years after the imposition of sanctions and during the bitter bush war years many remarkable innovations were made to keep the RhAF flying in the vanguard of counter insurgency operations This colorful look at the Rhodesian Air Force is sure to be of interest to military historians everywhere

Holding Up the Sky Sandy Blackburn-Wright,2008-03-01 Sandy lived and worked in South Africa between 1988 and 2003 years coinciding with some of the most tumultuous and significant events in the history of the nation including the release of Mandela Set against a background of profound political and social change Sandy tells her personal story with honesty passion intelligence and humour As a community development worker in the townships she witnessed the brutality of life under the apartheid regime yet at the same time she was bewitched by the uncrushable richness and vibrancy of the culture and traditions of the people and the grandeur and beauty of the land Her encounters were intense and often dangerous While living with a black family in a township she was caught up in the violence of the 1990 Seven Day War between Inkatha and ANC factions in which hundreds were killed She was forced to flee from gun wielding attackers and watched helplessly as a young man was shot dead in the driveway of her home Through her work she met the man who was to become her husband and began the next phase of her life as a member of an extended and welcoming traditional rural black South African Family Together she and her husband sought to contribute to the rebuilding and transformation of a post apartheid nation At first it seemed their love and commitment were strong enough to overcome the prejudice of the white and black communities prejudices that were exacerbated by their adoption of her husband s young niece followed by the birth of their own son But having given up so much for the love of a man of Africa Sandy found that no amount of commitment and determination could prevent the rifts that formed within her marriage Her final choice was unavoidable she left her marriage and the land she loved to return to Australia and begin a new life But she will carry forever in her heart the land that changed her life and which she in turn sought to support on its journey towards freedom United Empire ,1912
