Teacher's Manual: How to teach beginners [c1927] Isobel Davidson, Charles Joseph Anderson, 1927 Every Ending Has a New Beginning Jean R. Johnson, 2002 Every Ending Has a New Beginning is a book of nine fiction short stories that were inspired by real-life experiences. The book is filled with interesting, funny, shocking, chilling, touching, honest, and wild stories. It will definitely ignite a familiarity to someone you know. It touches on all aspects of life: prayer, rape, child abuse, relationship drama, family drama, drugs, happiness, sadness, illness, encouragement, and love. Every story shows some type of strength that these characters had to have in order to conquer their problems. The book also shows how people can get caught up and postpone happiness and lose his or her way. Instead, they end up settling for less. It also shows how you can be in a rut yet you can always pull yourself back up again. In addition, it shows 1 that sometimes we're just a victim or innocent bystander and unbeknownst to us, trouble finds us wherever we go; 2 that we can be anything we want to be; 3 that life is what we make it; and 4 that we do have choices. Too often we make the wrong choices, and no matter what, Every Ending Has a
