

A Chicken for Every Pot

THE Republican Party isn't a "Poor Man's Party!" Republican prosperity has erased that degrading phrase from our political vocabulary. The Republican Party is equality's party—opportunity's party—democracy's party, the party of national development, not sectional interests—the impartial servant of every State and condition in the Union.

Under higher tariff and lower taxation, America has stabilized output, employment and dividend rates.

Republican efficiency has filled the workingman's dinner pail—and his gasoline tank besides—made telephone, radio and sanitary plumbing standard household equipment. And placed the whole nation in the silk stocking class.

During eight years of Republican management, we have built more and better homes, erected more skyscrapers, passed more benefactory laws, and more laws to regulate and purify immigration, inaugurated more conservation measures, more measures to standardize and increase production, expand export markets, and reduce industrial and human junk piles, than in any previous quarter century.

utility, generalized the use of time-saving devices and released women from the thrall of domestic drudgery.

It has provided every county in the country with its concrete road and knitted the highways of the nation into a unified traffic system.

Thanks to Republican administration, farmer, dairyman and merchant can make deliveries in less time and at less expense, can borrow cheap money to refund exorbitant mortgages, and stock their pastures, ranges and shelves.

Democratic management impoverished and demoralized the railroads, led packing plants and tire factories into receivership, squandered billions on impractical programs.

Democratic maladministration issued further billions on mere "scraps of paper," then encouraged foreign debtors to believe that their loans would never be called, and bequeathed to the Republican Party the job of mopping up the mess.

Republican administration has restored to the railroads solvency, efficiency and par securities.

It has brought rubber trades through panic and chaos, brought down the prices of crude rubber by establishing

A Chicken In Every Pot:

Faith and Action R. J. Rushdoony, 2019-08-26 Faith and Action is the complete collection of the essays of R J Rushdoony written for the Chalcedon Report between 1965 and 2001 along with several transcripts of his recorded talks The large volume The Roots of Reconstruction only contained his Chalcedon Report essays up until 1985 so most of the essays included in Faith Action were unavailable to readers for many years until now In order to make the author s knowledge more accessible this three volume collection features some of the most extensive indexing we ve ever done including a General Index a History Index a Scripture Index a Works Cited Index and a Chalcedon Report Directory A total of 183 pages of indexing This handsome set of books is a must have for any serious library The central theme of this collection of essays is Christian Reconstruction which to Rushdoony meant the responsibility of Christian citizenship in the Kingdom of God For him his central drive behind his research and writing was to move men to faith and action Rushdoony was primarily an essayist who vigorously and prolifically wrote on a multiplicity of subjects issues and disciplines Despite his being critical of both the contemporary church for its compromise and the humanistic state for its will to be as God these essays are replete with Rushdoony s undying faith in the victory of God in history Rushdoony s big idea was Christian Reconstruction which centered not on a pursuit of political power but rather an equipping of Christians to take back government by means of self government in terms of God s law This three volume collection will no doubt serve the larger church for many generations as they seek first the Kingdom of God in their spheres and in their times
