The Overseas Trade of London Exchequer Customs Accounts, 1480-1 Henry S. Cobb,1990 Petty custom accounts of imports to and exports from the port of London by alien and denizen merchants Records vessels and masters and details of cargo from documents held by The National Archives The Materials of Early Theatre: Sources, Images, and Performance Meg Twycross,2017-12-06 Collected Studies CS 1068 The essays selected for this volume are chosen to reflect the important and intersecting ways in which over the last forty years Meg Twycross has shifted paradigms for people reading early English religious drama The focus of Meg Twycross s research has been on performance in its many aspects and this volume chooses four of the most important strands of her work the York plays new ways of understanding acting and performance in late medieval theatre particularly in Britain and across Europe why scenes are staged in the ways they are verbally and by extrapolation visually by close reading of texts against the background of medieval theology and the attention paid to wider contexts of medieval theatre concentrating especially on essays that are not easily available today These thematic strands are reflective of Meg Twycross s major contribution to the field They also represent those areas from her wider work which will have most utility and value for those whether students or senior specialists in areas beyond early drama who are looking for ways into understanding English medieval plays The crucial work that has been done here has opened new perspectives on late medieval theatre and will allow new generations to begin their study and research from further along the road The Paper Trade in Early Modern Europe Daniel Bellingradt,Anna Reynolds,2021-04-12 This book attends to the most essential lucrative and overlooked business activity of early modern Europe the trade of paper Despite the well known fact that paper was crucial to the success of printing and record keeping alike paper remains one of the least studied areas of early modern history Organised into three sections Hotspots and Trade Routes Usual Dealings and Recycling Economies the chapters in this collection shed light on the practices materials and networks of the paper trade Altogether the collection uncovers the actors involved in the networks of paper production transportation purchase and reuse between the thirteenth and nineteenth centuries and across the central and peripheral papermaking regions of Europe Contributors Renaud Adam Daniel Bellingradt Frank Birkenholz Simon Burrows Orietta Da Rold Michael Falk Anna Gialdini Rachel Hendery Silvia Hufnagel Jean Beno t Krumenacker Katherine McDonough Krisztina R bai Anna Reynolds Benito Rial Costas Tapio Salminen Helen Smith Jan Willem Veluwenkamp Andreas Weber and Megan Williams Piety, Fraternity, and Power David J. F. Crouch,2000 Detailed investigation of the religious gild showing its importance to all aspects of medieval life The religious gild was central to the structure of late medieval society providing lay people with a focus for public expressions of orthodox piety that accorded with the doctrinal views of government between 1399 and 1531 Using evidence from the county of Yorkshire this book argues that beyond their devotional and ceremonial roles the influence of these basically pious institutions permeated all aspects of late medieval political social and economic activity The author begins by discussing the evidence for Yorkshire gilds in the late fourteenth century moving on to survey the changing distribution development and membership of fraternities throughout the county over the next century and a half Special attention is given to the ways in which the religious gilds of Yorkshire interacted with town government with clerical bodies with occupational organisations and with one another illustrated with detailed case studies of the gilds of Corpus Christi York and St Mary in Holy Trinity Hull which are particularly well documented The final section of the book deals with the decline and disappearance of religious gilds during the Reformation showing how their devotional purposes were eroded by the new policies of central government and how many gilds anticipated their official dissolution DAVID J F CROUCH gained his D Phil from the University of York The Local Customs Accounts of the Port of Exeter, 1266-1321 Maryanne Kowaleski,1993 Exeter possesses the best series of local customs accounts from medieval England beginning in 1266 and surviving for almost 70 per cent of the years up to 1498 They are also far more complete than other local accounts listing ships names home ports shipmasters and dates of arrival as well as the importers and their cargoes Equally remarkable is their focus on coastal as well as overseas traffic unlike the better known national customs accounts which recorded only overseas trade From the Exeter accounts we can follow the movements of foreign and domestic shipping grain imports during the great Famine of 1315 17 and the identity of the merchants shipmasters and mariners who carried on the various kinds of trade Dr Kowaleski's introduction provides the first detailed account of the port of Exeter and its activities during this period followed by a complete translation of the surviving accounts from 1266 to 1321 The book also includes a specimen Latin account a glossary of weights and measures map and full indexes Customs Accounts of Hull 1453-1490, Ed Childs, W R (record Series Vol 144). YORKSHIRE ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOC., W. Women in England, 1275-1525 P. J. P. Goldberg,2013-01-01 This collection of sources demonstrates the variety of evidence that survives of English women in all walks of life from the time of Edward I to the eve of the Reformation The sources are introduced by a substantial overview of current thinking about English medieval women below the level of the greater aristocracy In addition Goldberg explores many of the methodological problems and strengths of particular sources Individual chapters explore the life cycle themes of childhood adolescence married life widowhood and old age The study then moves on to examine such topics as work in town and country prostitution the law recreation and devotion In every case the reader is exposed to a range of sources but particular attention is paid to those sources that reflect actual experience or provide insights into the lives of ordinary women rather than the prescriptive or purely literary texts A particular feature of this collection is the extensive use of church court depositions that allow the voices of peasant women servant girls bourgeois wives or poor widows to be heard across the centuries The sources are presented in a form designed to be accessible to undergraduates but of interest to teachers and researchers alike The Customs Accounts of Hull, 1453-1490 Wendy R.

English cookery The example he gives of produce available in a particular area constrained by geographical formations shows how the problem of feeding a family in ways suited to the locality can be dealt with creatively In this book we celebrate a few of the items that have been provided in the English kitchen for the English table The Yorkshire Archaeological Journal ,1993 A review of history antiquities and topography in the county The Local Historian ,1992 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin Towns and Local Communities in Medieval and Early Modern England David Michael Palliser,2006 David Palliser focuses here on towns in England in the centuries between the Norman Conquest and the Tudor period on which he is an acknowledged authority Urban topography archaeology economy society and politics are all reviewed and particular attention is given to relationships between towns and the Crown to the evidence for migration into towns and to the vexed question of urban fortunes in the 15th and 16th centuries The collection includes two hitherto unpublished studies and is introduced and put in context by a new survey of English towns from the 7th to the 16th centuries The Mariner's Mirror Leonard George Carr Laughton,Roger Charles Anderson,William Gordon Perrin,1997 Publications Devon and Cornwall Record Society,1955
