Daily Life In Rembrandts Holland Daily Life:

Daily Life in Rembrandt's Holland Paul Zumthor, 2022 Rembrandt's life coincided with what the Dutch refer to as their golden age. This engagingly written study presents a rich picture of a dynamic society that had torn itself away from the mediocrity of its past: a stagnant nation of peasants and fishermen to pursue an overseas empire that led to great financial wealth and a highly sophisticated cultivation of the arts. This classic work first appeared in English translation in 1963. Among the myriad topics covered are homes, gardens, clothing, food, religion, childrearing, education, medicine, sports, and games; holidays and celebrations; painters, musicians, writers, the theater, publishing, aristocrats, workers, peasants, the merchant fleet, the armed forces, trading and colonizing companies, fisheries, and the famous Holland dikes.

Tulipomania Mike Dash, 2010-02-10 A vivid narration of the history of the tulip from its origins on the barren, windswept steppes of central Asia to its place of honor in the lush imperial gardens of Constantinople to its starring moment as the most coveted and beautiful commodity in Europe. In the 1630s, visitors to the prosperous trading cities of the Netherlands couldn't help but notice that thousands of normally sober, hardworking Dutch citizens were caught up in an extraordinary frenzy of buying and selling. The object of this unprecedented speculation was the tulip, a delicate and exotic Eastern import that had bewitched horticulturists, noblemen, and tavern owners alike. For almost a year, rare bulbs changed hands for incredible and ever-increasing sums until single flowers were being sold for more than the cost of a house. Historians would come to call it tulipomania. It was the first futures market in history and like so many of the ones that would follow, it crashed spectacularly, plunging speculators and investors into economic ruin and despair. This colorful cast of characters includes Turkish sultans, Yugoslav soldiers, French botanists, and Dutch tavern keepers, all centuries apart, historically and worlds apart culturally, but with one thing in common: tulipomania.
