A Boys Ride:

A Boy's Ride Gulielma Zollinger, 2005-03 Purchase one of 1st World Library's Classic Books and help support our free internet library of downloadable eBooks Visit us online at www.1stWorldLibrary.ORG It was the last of May in the north of England in the year 1209 A very different England from what any boy of today has seen A chilly east wind was blowing The trees of the vast forests were all in leaf but the ash trees and they were unfolding their buds And along a bridle path a few miles southwest of York a lad of fourteen was riding while behind him followed a handsome deerhound A boy of fourteen at that age of the world was an older and more important personage than he is today If he were well born he had generally by this time served his time as a page and was become an esquire in the train of some noble lord That this lad had not done so was because his uncle a prior in whose charge he had been reared since the early death of his parents had designed him for a priest Priest however he had declined to be and his uncle had now permitted him to go forth unattended to attach himself as page to some lord if he could
