A Brief And Cleere Confutation 1603:

A Brief and Cleere Confutation. 1603 Richard Walpole, O. E., 1975 A Brief and Cleere Confutation, 1603 Richard Walpole, 1975 The Shakespeare First Folio: A new worldwide census of first folios Anthony James West, 2001 Existing copies of the Shakespeare First Folio 1623 were surveyed and counted a hundred years ago in Sidney Lee's Census of 1902. Since then some seventy copies have come to light, some of which are only now identified as First Folios. This new Census lists 229 copies, giving concise descriptions of each. The entries cover condition, including the number of original leaves, items of special interest, provenance, and binding. A concordance of Lee and West numbers is also provided. To set the stage, the volume tells the story of the search for copies and the detective work involved in dealing with doubtful identifications. Because folios survive in such a wide variety of condition, the tests for defining what to count as a copy are described, then demonstrated with three unnumbered unrecognized copies at the Folger Shakespeare Library. Finally, details of missing copies are given to increase the likelihood of their rediscovery. Early English Printed Books in the University Library, Cambridge (1475 to 1640) Cambridge University Library, 1907 The Contemporary Printed Literature of the English Counter-Reformation between 1558 and 1640 A.F. Allison, D.M. Rogers, 2017-03-02 This is an annotated bibliography of Catholic books in English printed abroad or secretly in England at a time when Catholic printing was prohibited in England and such books when discovered by the authorities were seized and destroyed. It includes all the 930 items listed in the authors' A Catalogue of Catholic Books in English 1956. A.R. except for a handful which, for reasons of consistency, were described in volume I of the present work. Scholar Press 1989 and it adds a further twenty-five on which information has come to light more recently. The annotations, historical, literary, and bibliographical, are very much fuller than those in A.R. and include a vast amount of evidence now brought together for the first time. The true authors of many anonymous and pseudonymous books are identified, and many books issued with a false imprint or no imprint at all are assigned to particular presses. In each entry, up to fifteen locations are given where known. A concordance links the entries with those in A.R. to facilitate cross-reference from one to the other, and indexes of titles, printers, and publishers, and persons, including foreign authors mentioned in the text, are provided. The volume concludes with a short list of Addenda and Corrigenda to volume I.

Antwerp & the World Paul Arblaster, 2004 Richard Verstegan is the usual English name of a man who went through early life as Richard Rowlands, before reverting to his ancestral Dutch surname in exile. Born in Mid-Tudor London around 1550 and dying in the Baroque Antwerp of 1640, his ninety-odd years of life saw numerous religious, political, and military conflicts, in some of which he was a minor player and on almost all of which he commented in his writings. After studying at Oxford without taking a degree, training as a goldsmith, and illegally printing a Catholic book, he fled to France where he worked as a propagandist for the faction of the Duke of Guise. Imprisoned in France for these activities, he fled to Rome and eventually settled in Antwerp where he worked for almost fifty years as variously a newswriter, engraver, publisher, editor, translator, polemicist antiquarian cloth merchant poet and satirist He is one of the earliest identifiable European newspaper journalists having worked on Abraham Verhoeven's Nieuwe Tijdinghen Antwerp 1620-1629
