A Call To Revival

Greenbery B. Howard

A Call To Revival:

Jewish Missionary Magazine, 1930 The Morning Star and Free Baptist, 1908 A Call to Revival! Lloyd W. Cary, 2003 The Great Revival in Wales Solomon Benjamin Shaw, 1905 Twenty Years of Revival Effort Greenbery B. Howard, 1899 Seeking a Revival Culture Allen M. Baker III, 2009-07-01

The great burden of Al Baker's life that which drives him in Christian ministry more than anything else is to see the church of the Lord Jesus Christ rise up and become mighty as she has been so often in past years. One thing has become very clear to Baker: the western church is in big trouble. Many pastors are terribly discouraged in their ministries. So are their people. Pastors have been told that they can model their ministries after whoever the latest and hottest preacher is and all will be well with them; that they can expect exponential growth in their churches. With few exceptions, this has not been their experience. They have attended the seminars and read the latest books but they have little to show for their efforts. As a pastor, Baker is heartbroken over the vastness of people's problems in today's church: everything from incest, child molestation, homosexuality, pornography, severe depression, suicide, divorce, wayward children, adultery, fornication, and more. The pastoral problems are epidemic. The Christian faith in American churches is woefully lacking. Church people are generally no different from those of the world. What are we to do? We need revival. We need a revival culture in the western church. We need, like Israel, laboring under Egyptian bondage, to become intolerable of our circumstances. Israel cried out to the Lord when their slavery became intolerable to them. May God move us to divine discontent, to be dissatisfied with the status quo.

The Journal and Messenger, 1918 The Need for a Revival of Third Worldism and the Continued Relevance of the Concept of the Third World Nico Smit, 2010-12-15

Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2010 in the subject Politics. Topic: Development. Politics grade 76%. University of Cape Town course: International Relations Honours. Language: English. Abstract: The end of the Cold War, some have argued, has dealt the three worlds classification scheme a fatal blow, and the break up of the former Soviet Union and the associated disintegration of the Second World has to a large extent diminished the rationale which underlay the concept of the Third World. Furthermore, from its heyday in the 1970s, Third Worldism has been on a path of terminal decline due to a number of factors such as disproportionate economic development among Third Worldist states, political differences, and the failure to establish a common programme for international economic and political reform. Within the literature relating to Third Worldism, the concept of the Third World itself and the three worlds scheme, there is a lively debate with some arguing that the concept has become an anachronism, others maintaining that the concept maintains significance in the contemporary era. Furthermore, while there is general consensus within the literature that Third Worldism has experienced a declining trend, some argue that there is both the need and space for a revival of Third Worldism.
