A Christmas Longing:

A Christmas Longing Joni Eareckson Tada, 2010-06-23 Christmas whispers of wistful longings and warm family celebrations the Savior has come But the story isn't finished Peace on earth and goodwill toward men will only be a wish and a vision until the Prince of Peace finally rules our world The lights the singing the gift giving and the joy foreshadow an eternal morning together in His presence Through her artwork her creative retelling of the Nativity and her tender reflections of the Christmas season Joni Eareckson Tada invites the reader to consider anew the Son of God who is the wellspring of every joy the fulfillment of every longing Take time this Christmas season to step outside the clamor and excitement Visit the stable and ask God to speak to you in the quiet and serenity and stillness Never stop believing that He will fulfill His promise to live among us in unveiled majesty and splendor The Home-maker, 1889 Jesus Is the Question Martin B. Copenhaver, 2014-09-02 Contrary to some common assumptions Jesus is not the ultimate Answer Man but more like the Great Questioner In the Gospels Jesus asks many more questions than he answers To be precise Jesus asks 307 questions He is asked 183 of which he only answers 3 Asking questions was central to Jesus' life and teachings In fact for every question he answers directly he asks literally a hundred Jesus is the Question considers the questions Jesus asks what they tell us about Jesus and more important what our responses might say about what it means to follow Him Through Jesus' questions he modeled the struggle the wondering the thinking it through that helps us draw closer to God and better understand not just the answer but ourselves our process and ultimately why questions are among Jesus' most profound gifts for a life of faith A game changer of a book Lost but Making Excellent Time Jody Seymour, 2009-04-01 In Lost but Making Excellent Time Jody Seymour reminds readers that the ways and pace of our fast track world lead to a place where we discover that we are traveling at breakneck speed but that our spirits are being left behind Seymour uses prose and poetry to reclaim the ancient cycle of the Christian year as a new way to slow down and discover who we really are The Christian year becomes a kind of compass to be used so that travelers through our rat race existence can become aware that we are really fashioned by a Master Hand not to be tourists but pilgrims The words of this book can become a kind of pilgrim's guide to keep readers from being lost while making excellent time A Fountain in France Marita van der Vyver, 2015-03-01 More than a decade ago Marita van der Vyver emigrated to France where she married a Frenchman and settled in the scenic countryside of Provence Having become famous for a novel built on fairy tales her life resembles that of a princess meeting her Prince Charming Several bestsellers much living and loving and years later they move to another French village called Place of Frogs A Fountain in France is a book of stories about moving the way the French do it It is also about place what binds the heart to a home and its people about breaking ties to grow new ones and about what we take with us when we move on For Marita life is an effervescent fountain always bubbling up new surprises This book will be enjoyed by anyone who has lived or travelled in a foreign country or wished they had It touches on universal experiences shared by expatriates all over the world Whether you are based in Provence or Perth Bath or Beijing you quickly learn that a good sense of humour might be the most important qualification if you want to survive being the eternal outsider Until My Heart Sings Beth Borderieux,2016-04-21 Beth Borderieux s book is based on experiences in daily life that could be connected to truths about God While doing an everyday task God often showed her a spiritual truth related to what she was seeing or hearing She jotted down the ideas and transformed them into poems or devotional short stories She found this process particularly helpful when she felt low and believes God was encouraging her not to give up These poems and short passages combined with biblical quotes provide a reflection on a variety of topics ranging from pondering on designer clothes to the stubborn vacuum cleaner to poison ivy Christmas and school Until My Heart Sings is personal and direct Reflecting on its wisdoms it is like having a conversation with a friend who is trying to help you cope with life s problems Beth Borderieux invites you to examine your attitudes towards life and to learn to see God in everything The Home-maker Marion Harland,1889
