A City Full Of Rain:

A River with a City Problem Margaret Cook, 2023-05-22 When floods devastated South East Queensland in 2011 who was to blame Despite the inherent risk of living on a floodplain most residents had pinned their hopes on Wivenhoe Dam to protect them and when it failed to do so dam operators were blamed for the scale of the catastrophic events that followed A River with a City Problem is a compelling history of floods in the Brisbane River catchment especially those in 1893 1974 2011 and 2022 Extensively researched it highlights the force of nature the vagaries of politics and the power of community With many river cities facing urban development challenges historian Margaret Cook makes a convincing argument for what must change to prevent further tragedy In this updated edition Cook investigates the 2022 floods to illustrate how no two floods are the same

For the Love of Cod Eric Dregni, 2023-04-04 A journey to find Norway s supposed bliss makes for a comic travelogue that asks seriously what makes Norwegians so damn happy and does it translate Norway is usually near or at the top of the World Happiness Report But is it really one of the happiest countries on Earth Eric Dregni had his doubts Years ago he and his wife had lived in this country his great great grandfather once fled When their son Eilif was born there the Norwegian government paid for the birth gave them 5 000 and deposited 150 into their bank account every month but surely happiness was more than a generous health care system What about all those grim months without sun When Eilif turned fifteen father and son decided to go back together and investigate For the Love of Cod is their droll report on the state of purported Norwegian bliss Arriving in May a month of festivals and eternal sun the Dregnis are thrust into Norway at its merriest and into the reality of the astronomical cost of living which forces them to find lodging with friends and relatives But this gives them an inside look at the secrets to a better life It s not the massive amounts of money flowing from the North Sea oil fields but how these funds are distributed that fuels the Norwegian version of democratic socialism resulting in miniscule differences between rich and poor Locals introduce them to the principles underlying their avowed contentment from an active environmentalism that translates into flyskam flight shame which keeps Norwegians in the family cabin for the long vacations prescribed by law and charges a 150 percent tax on gas guzzlers which Eilif observes means more Teslas seen in one hour than in a year in Minnesota From a passion for dugnad or community volunteerism and sakte or slow a rejection of the mad pace of modernity to the commodification of Viking history and the dark side of Black Metal music that turns the idea of quaint traditional Norway upside down this idiosyncratic father and son tour lets readers free of flyskam see how or whether Norwegian happiness translates
