Czechoslovak Wit And Wisdom Revised Paperback:

Through Different Eyes J. Barbara Alvord, 2004-03-14 What happens when a meagerly educated peasant girl is chosen in 1903 to leave her family and accompany her illiterate godfather from Europe to the Midlands of America Young Anna Barbara Mrkvicka left the dirt floor of her over crowded one room home to enter an unknown world and overwhelming challenges at every turn Through Different Eyes describes the back breaking peasant life of that era Anna worked in the fields at six years of age It travels with the young peasant in steerage on a daunting ocean voyage and it reveals the frustrating immigrant experience of Ellis Island It explores the sounds and smells of sleeping for six weeks on steamy tenement rooftops of New York Citys dangerous Lower East Side sometimes with a knife handy for protection The journey includes a lengthy train ride into the Heartland of the United States reveals the anxiety of arriving to work with strangers on an isolated farmstead in early Iowa With no way to learn the English language of America for three hard years the frightened girl was unable to escape an abusive step aunt She was neither paid for her exhausting farm work nor allowed enough to eat she was beaten Yet Anna not only miraculously survived her ordeals her grit and determination at last enabled her to bring all seven members of her family and a foster brother to Iowa in 1909 It was just in time World War I was threatening to engulf Europe After years of research this creative biography honors all unsung immigrants like young Anna It pays homage to the millions of men and women who desperately struggled to transplant their family lives to the freedom of America their precious gift to those of us so privileged to be citizens of this great land The Czechoslovak Review, 1923 The Czechoslovak Review Jaroslav F. Smetanka, E. F. Prantner, 1923 Welcoming New Iowans Anne C. Woodrick, 2002 Immigrant and refugee newcomers have an important role in Iowa These newcomers have revitalized many Iowa communities workplaces and faith based institutions The arrival of immigrants and refugees poses challenges as well as rewards understanding and addressing these issues is vital to welcoming and accommodating new Iowans and assuring their part in the long term economic and social health of our state This handbook represents a unique collaboration between the University of Northern Iowa UNI and Ecumenical Ministries of Iowa EMI The goal of this collaboration is to create a guidebook for Iowans to learn more about Iowa s growing immigrant and refugee population and discover ways to welcome these newcomers and accommodate them in our communities and churches The unique nature of this joint publication between a public university and Christian churches acknowledges that both institutions have a stake in accommodating immigrants in Iowa UNI and all institutions of higher education need to support population growth to assure future enrollments Churches and many other community institutions need immigrants and other newcomers to help maintain their viability Universities and churches also need healthy local economies Newcomers can provide much needed skills and labor to make this happen In short His collaboration recognizes that making immigration in Iowa work has important long term implications for us all This book was written and compiled by two university faculty members but it is not an official university endorsement of Christianity as the only religion practiced and accepted by Iowans and no university funds were used to print or distribute this handbook This handbook is written for Iowa s Christian community and is based on the Biblical mandate to welcome newcomers but we acknowledge Iowa s other religious groups and their role in accommodating newcomers as well We readily acknowledge that other faith based organizations also welcome newcomers and have a stake in making immigration a positive experience In order to accommodate the perspectives and needs of these groups the UNI New Iowans Program is planning to develop similar handbooks for Iowa s Jewish and Muslim communities This handbook includes a number of resource lists for individuals newcomers churches and others Of course as soon as these lists are printed they may become out of date In order to obtain the most up to date information please visit the UNI New Iowans Web site www.bcs.uni.edu/idm/newiowans The UNI New Iowans website also makes this handbook available in a PDF format
