Dada and beyond Elza Adamowicz, Eric Robertson, 2011 This collection of critical essays celebrates the subversive and challenging creativity of the Dada movement born in pacifist Zurich in 1916 in violent reaction to the First World War It examines the collective and individual activities that took place under the name of Dada in Zurich Cologne Berlin Paris New York and Barcelona and explores the various creative forms employed including text collage photomontage objects dance performance and film The authors suggest new ways of understanding the work of the most famous Dadaists while also casting light on the contribution of hitherto neglected figures Far from attempting to reduce Dada to a homogeneous movement or to define a unifying principle beneath and beyond the multiple directions taken by Dadaists this collection aims to respect the diversity and heterogeneity of the movement s collective activities as well as the specificity of its individual actors
