Remarkable Women in New York History Helen Engel,Marilynn Smiley,2014-04-08 A history of the amazing women who have left their mark on the Empire State The significant events in New York State history are well known to educators students and New Yorkers alike But often the role that women played in these events has been overlooked In this book members of the American Association of University Women in New York State have meticulously researched the lives and actions of some of New York s finest women Some of the names are renowned like the great emancipator Harriet Tubman who settled in Auburn and some are less so such as Linda Tetor who fought for the rights of senior citizens in Steuben County and throughout the state Discover the stories of these indomitable women who from Long Island and Manhattan to Buffalo and Fredonia have steered the course of New York s history from the colonial era through today

Consumerism and American Girls' Literature, 1860-1940 Peter Stoneley,2003-03-27 Why did the figure of the girl come to dominate the American imagination from the middle of the nineteenth century into the twentieth In

Consumerism and American Girls Literature Peter Stoneley looks at how women fictionalized for the girl reader the ways of achieving a powerful social and cultural presence He explores why and how a scenario of buying into womanhood became between 1860 and 1940 one of the nation s central allegories one of its favourite means of negotiating social change From Jo March to Nancy Drew girls fiction operated in dynamic relation to consumerism performing a series of otherwise awkward manoeuvres between country and metropolis uncouth and unspoilt modern and anti modern Covering a wide range of works and authors this book will be of interest to cultural and literary scholars alike

The Insides of the Outsider: Women and the Poetics of Space and Place Mariangela Ugarelli,2026-01-06 When asked if being a woman had a negative impact on her ability to succeed as a writer Argentine poet Alejandra Pizarnik stated that even if not a physical impediment being a woman in a patriarchal society is a tragedy in itself She followed this comment by saying What matters is what we do with our own tragedies Beyond sex assigned at birth feminized bodies around the world share a similar phenomenological experience which is dictated by a complicated relationship to space Before setting pen to paper the woman writer a monster herself within patriarchal discourse must confront the role society has set for her For a writer in a feminized body thus the act of writing never begins with a tabula rasa but with a refusal and a challenge an ushering out of the supposed eden of the domestic The question of the women writer s space is further exacerbated when considering matters of intersectionality The poetics of space and place change within the confines of different geopolitical structures and their relations amongst each other How do they shift when the center becomes de centered and writing stems not from a place of political power but from the quieted voices of minor literature queer and racialized bodies or subalternized latitudes This volume will attempt to address these questions with input from a diverse group of scholars dealing with an equally diverse corpus North and Latin America converse with Europe while genre literature minor literature and gendered literatures take center stage By taking into account a wide array of cultural objects from poetry and children s literature to Gothic tales and television shows this collection of articles reveals the profound link between space and the female experience through the lens of art and literature
