Moulton,2002-01-01 Lively and curious possessing a keen eye for detail and a knack for skin dressing Private Joseph Whitehouse produced an account that stands as the only surviving record by any army private in the Corps of Discovery expedition In simple and well paced sentences he painted full portraits of the unusual group of men he accompanied on one of the greatest adventures in American history Whitehouse s journal is published here in full for the first time including entries from a second copy of his journal that extend the narrative for five months beyond previous editions Although Whitehouse s career after the expedition was checkered and he disappeared after 1817 his vivid eyewitness account will long be remembered Whitehouse s journal joins the celebrated Nebraska edition of the complete journals of the Lewis and Clark expedition which feature a wide range of new scholarship dealing with all aspects of the expedition from geography to Indian cultures and languages to plants and animals The American Gas Light Journal ,1894 Quarterly Journal of Microscopical Science ,1904 The Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition: The journals of Joseph Whitehouse, May 14, 1804-April 2, 1806 Meriwether Lewis,William Clark,Gary E. who undertook one of the defining events in our history The last part of his journals was not found until 1966 this is the first publication of the complete record of his account Chamber's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1878
