Diary Of A Da:

Diary of a DA Herbert J. Stern, 2012-09-01 In 1961 twenty five year old Herbert Jay Stern fresh from reserve duty stood in his green army uniform in a New York County courtroom to be sworn in as an attorney He could only guess what his life as a prosecuting lawyer would be A dozen years later in the wake of the national scandal of Watergate Stern draped in black robes now would take the oath of office as a federal judge In the years between the idealistic young Stern would sharpen his skills in the realities of the criminal courts of New York City to emerge as the lead trial attorney for the Justice Department charged with breaking the back of organized crime in New Jersey Stern s highly charged account of his outright war against powerful state government officials and the mafia takes us deep inside the mechanisms of law and order during a time when assassinations came fast and loose cities were burning in race riots and racketeering and graft were so prevalent in the Garden State that its own senator called it a stench in the nostrils and an offense to the vision of the world Before Stern and his equally dedicated colleagues on the strike force out of Washington D C are finished they will have successfully prosecuted the mayors of Jersey City Newark and Atlantic City for being on the take a congressman for conspiracy tax violations and perjury and blackened the eye of organized crime

Cinderella Army Terry Copp, 2007-01-01 Except for a brief period during the Rhineland battle the First Canadian Army was the smallest to serve under Eisenhower s command The Canadian component never totalled more than 185 000 of the four million Allied troops serving in Northwest Europe It is evident however that the divisions of 2nd Canadian Corps played a role disproportionate to their numbers Their contribution to operations designed to secure the channel ports and open the approaches to Antwerp together with the battles in the Rhineland place them among the most heavily committed and sorely tried divisions in the Allied armies By the end of 1944

3rd Canadian Division had suffered the highest number of casualties in 21 Army Group with 2nd Canadian Division ranking a close second In the armoured divisions 4th Canadian was at the top of the list as was 2nd Canadian Armoured Brigade among the independent tank brigades Overall Canadian casualties were 20 per cent higher than in comparable British formations This was a direct result of the much greater number of days that Canadian units were involved in close combat Jacket
