The Accidental Diarist Molly McCarthy,2024-05-31 In this era of tweets and blogs it is easy to assume that the self obsessive recording of daily minutiae is a recent phenomenon But Americans have been navel gazing since nearly the beginning of the republic The daily planner variously called the daily diary commercial diary and portable account book first emerged in colonial times as a means of telling time tracking finances locating the nearest inn and even planning for the coming winter They were carried by everyone from George Washington to the soldiers who fought the Civil War And by the twentieth century this document had become ubiquitous in the American home as a way of recording a great deal more than simple accounts In this appealing history of the daily act of self reckoning Molly McCarthy explores just how vital these unassuming and easily overlooked stationery staples are to those who use them From their origins in almanacs and blank books through the nineteenth century and on to the enduring legacy of written introspection McCarthy has penned an exquisite biography of an almost ubiquitous document that has borne witness to American lives in all of their complexity and mundanity The Brand and Its History Patricio Sáiz,Rafael Castro,2022-03-16

This book delves into the origins and evolution of trademark and branding practices in a wide range of geographical areas and periods providing key knowledge for academics professionals and general audiences on the complex world of brands The volume compiles the work of twenty five prominent worldwide scholars studying the origins and evolution of trademarks and branding practices from medieval times to present days and from distinct European countries to the USA New Zealand

Canada Latin America and the Soviet Union The first part of the book provides new insights on pre modern craft marks on the emergence of trademark legal regimes during the nineteenth century and on the evolution of trademark and business strategies in distinct regions sectors and contexts As industrialisation and globalisation spread during the twentieth century trademarking led to modern branding and international marketing a process driven by new economic but also cultural factors The second part of the book explores the cultural side of the brand and offers challenging studies on how luxury fashion culture associations and the consolidation of national identities played a key role in nowadays branding This edited volume will not only be of great value to scholars students and policymakers interested in trademark branding research but to marketing and legal practitioners as well aiming to delve into the origins of modern brand strategies The chapters in this book were originally published as two special issues of the journal Business History The Rotarian ,1983-11 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine The Rotarian ,1980-11 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine The Rotarian ,1986-10 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine The Historical Foundations of the Law Relating to Trademarks Frank Isaac Schechter,1925 The pharmaceutical journal and transactions ,1880 The Trade-mark Reporter ,2000
