Thinking Out of Sight Jacques Derrida, 2004-05-31 Jacques Derrida remains a leading voice of philosophy his works still resonating today and for more than three decades one of the main sites of Derridean deconstruction has been the arts Collecting nineteen texts spanning from 1979 to 2004 Thinking out of Sight brings to light Derrida's most inventive ideas about the making of visual artworks The book is divided into three sections The first demonstrates Derrida's preoccupation with visibility image and space The second contains interviews and collaborations with artists on topics ranging from the politics of color to the components of painting Finally the book delves into Derrida's writings on photography video cinema and theater ending with a text published just before his death about his complex relationship to his own image With many texts appearing for the first time in English Thinking out of Sight helps us better understand the critique of representation and visibility throughout Derrida's work and most importantly to assess the significance of his insights about art and its commentary

The Oxford Handbook of the Jewish Diaspora Hasia R. Diner, 2021-11-05 The Oxford Handbook of the Jewish Diaspora is a comprehensive collection of scholarship that reflects the multifaceted nature of diaspora studies Persecuted and exiled throughout their history Jews have also continuously migrated to places offering better opportunities yet the Jewish people have been defined by their permanent lack of belonging This Oxford Handbook explores the complicated nature of diasporic Jewish life as something both destructive and creative The contributors explore subjects as diverse as biblical and medieval representations of diaspora the various diaspora communities that emerged across the globe the contradictory relationship the diaspora bears to Israel and how the diaspora is celebrated and debated within modern Jewish thought

American Exposures Louis Kaplan, 2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole's propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover
