Muiwlanej kikamaqki "Honouring Our Ancestors" Janet E. Chute,2023-11-01 Drawing upon oral and documentary evidence this volume explores the lives of noteworthy Mi kmaw individuals whose thoughts actions and aspirations impacted the history of the Northeast but whose activities were too often relegated to the shadows of history The book highlights Mi kmaw leaders who played major roles in guiding the history of the region between 1680 and 1980 It sheds light on their community and emigration policies organizational and negotiating skills diplomatic endeavours and stewardship of land and resources Contributors to the volume range from seasoned scholars with years of research in the field to Mi kmaw students whose interest in their history will prove inspirational Offering important new insights the book re centres Indigenous nationhood to alter the way we understand the field itself The book also provides a lengthy index so that information may be retrieved and used in future research Muiwlanej kikamaqki Honouring Our Ancestors will engage the interest of Indigenous and non Indigenous readers alike engender pride in Mi kmaw leadership legacies and encourage Mi kmaw youth and others to probe more deeply into the history of the Northeast Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond,Martine M.

Caron,1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross-referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content, arrangements, and indexing of works, the availability of non-print formats, previous editions, and title changes, and related works.

Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.
