Diary Of A Cotswold Parson:

The Diary of a Cotswold Parson Francis Edward Witts,1978 The diary of a Cotswold parson from 1820 to 1852 throws new light on a fascinating period of English social history

Diary of a Cotswold Parson F.E. Witts,1980-06-01

The Complete Diary of a Cotswold Parson Francis Edward Witts,2008

The Patriarch Francis Witts,2018-01-19 Volume Nine begins with the death of the diarist s wife Margaret s health had always been delicate and she finally declined and died of dropsy She had never been a lively person but it had been a marriage of money and her resources restored the Witts family s fortune and provided the foundation to the substantial estate that Francis Witts left to his son Edward Witts was lonely and reflective in his final years His own health was not good and he predicted correctly that it was the heart On 4 May 1854 he put his thoughts to his diary But in truth the continued if not increased difficulty of breathing makes me satisfied that there is some serious mischief near or about the heart it may be organic and the end may come at no distant period may I be then found not ill prepared resigned patient and penitent as the clouds gather around me In between the periods of indifferent health he roused himself to visit old friends and relations and he made several visits to London especially at the time of the Great Exhibition in 1851 At last he found a curate to aid him in his clerical duties but it was all too late In the presence of his curate at lunch on 18 August 1854 the ultimate mischief occurred The previous day he had written the final words in his diary Received from C J Geldard a present of two brace of Moor game He did not live to enjoy them and his diaries extending 56 years came to close

The Complete Diary of a Cotswold Parson - Volume 7 the Man of Business Francis Edward Witts,Alan Sutton,2009-02-05 With Edward now his curate at Stanway and married with a family Francis interest in national and county events is eclipsed by family and local events The growing Oxford Movement or Tractarians is now mentioned regularly and Francis begins to lean more towards the Movement and away from his previous view of himself as a traditional clergyman His attitude to the Triennial Music Meeting changes too from the enthusiasm of younger years to a distinctly negative view as he grows older

Complete Diary of A Cotswold Parson Francis Edward Witts,2008-11-01 Life for Francis Witts is more settled Victoria has ascended the throne and Francis is now Chairman of the Board of Governors of Stow on the Wold Union Workhouse a position he takes seriously and maintains until his death The diaries throw much light onto the setting up of the Unions and the harsh routine there He does not disapprove of charity being shown to the inmates but is most unhappy at the suggestion that they be allowed to enjoy the Coronation celebrations

The Complete Diary of a Cotswold Parson - Volume 8 the Man of Property Francis Edward Witts,Alan Sutton,2010-01-01 Volume Eight begins with a family holiday probably the only time in which the whole family including grandchildren spent a long time together May June 1846 The destination was the Isle of Wight where they had an enjoyable sojourn of five weeks although Margaret s poor health precluded her doing much walking Much of the volume covers property matters and the Hunt Trust The summer of 1847 did not include a holiday but as a substitute Francis and Margaret spent nine days with the Hunt family in Stoke Doyle Northamptonshire and of course much Trust business was discussed The following year saw their holiday with a four week break in North Wales From 1848 onwards Margaret s health went into a severe decline Missing diaries result in us knowing little of what happened between November 1848 and December 1849 but from that point onwards Margaret became bed bound and by the end of this volume she was lying at death s door Volume Eight is interesting for depth of detail The Irish Potato Famine is covered although not in as much detail as one may have imagined There is also the say news of the death of Frederick Howell in South Africa killed in a conflict with Hottentots Frederick was the eldest son of Thomas Howell Francis Witt s closest friend The Diary of a Cotswold Parson Francis Edward Witts,1978 The Diary of a Cotswold Parson, 1783-1854 ,1980 COMPLETE DIARY OF A COTSWOLD PARSON ,2020 The Complete Diary of a Cotswold Parson - Volume 9 the Patriarch Francis E.
