Across Five Aprils Irene Hunt, 1965 Each successful spring brings a young Illinois boy closer to manhood as he faces the harsh realities of the American Civil War This is the Follett Prize book It is as the publisher claims a book for all age levels although older readers will be better able to appreciate its many nuances It begins in April 1861 on the Creighton farm in southern Illinois it ends on the same farm in April 1865 thus the title April is the month of beginnings and endings when the cold winds reluctantly give way to the soft breezes that signal rebirth In 1861 young Jethro Creighton is warmed by the romantic idea of war of banners flying bands playing men marching By April 1865 he has lost his brother Tom witnessed the burning of his father s barn because his brother Bill joined the Confederates and seen his father become an old man He has himself gone from boyhood to manhood in these pages The joy of peace is lost in the tragedy of Lincoln s assassination yet life must go on and Jethro faces his life with the maturity of one who has been tested A beautifully written spare prose makes all this come vividly sometimes painfully alive Despite the large number of Civil War books there is always room left for one like this
