Hayes leaves resonance cleaving the air NPR In these works based on his Bagley Wright lectures on the poet Etheridge Knight Terrance Hayes offers not quite a biography but a compilation as speculative motley and adrift as Knight himself Personal yet investigative poetic yet scholarly this multi genre collection of writings and drawings enacts one poet s search for another and in doing so constellates a powerful vision of black literature and art in America The future Etheridge Knight biographer will simultaneously write an autobiography Fathers who go missing and fathers who are distant will become the bones of the stories There will be a fable about a giant who grew too tall to be kissed by his father My father must have kissed me when I was boy I can t really say By the time I was eleven or even ten years old I was as tall as him I was six inches taller than him by the time I was fifteen My biography about Knight would be about intimacy heartache Terrance Hayes is the author of How to Be Drawn which received a 2016 NAACP Image Award for Poetry Lighthouse which won the 2010 National Book Award for poetry and three other award winning poetry collections He is the poetry editor at the New York Times Magazine and also teaches at the University of Pittsburgh American Sonnets for My Past and Future Assassin will also be forthcoming in 2018 Turning Into Dwelling Christopher Gilbert, 2015-07-07 A milestone publication of the late Christopher Gilbert s poetry with an introduction by the National Book Award winner Terrance Hayes Christopher Gilbert s award winning Across the Mutual Landscape has become an underground classic of contemporary American poetry Now reissued and presented with Gilbert s never before published last manuscript written before his death in 2007 Turning into Dwelling offers new readers the original music and vision of one of our most inventive poets Provided by publisher Best Barbarian Roger Reeves, 2022-03-22 Winner of the 2023 Griffin Poetry Prize Winner of the 2023 Kingsley Tufts Poetry Award Finalist for the 2022 National Book Award for Poetry the PEN Voelcker Award for Poetry Collection and the NAACP Image Award for Outstanding Literary Work Poetry A New York Times Notable Book Terrific Reeves expands literary tradition so that new political ideas self revelation and play can thrive Sandra Simonds New York Times Book Review In his brilliant expansive second volume Whiting Award winning poet Roger Reeves probes the apocalypses and raptures of humanity climate change anti Black racism familial and erotic love ecstasy and loss The poems in Best Barbarian roam across the literary and social landscape from Beowulf s Grendel to the jazz musician Alice Coltrane from reckoning with immigration at the U S Mexico border to thinking through the fraught beauty of the moon on a summer night after the police have killed a Black man Daring and formally elegant Best Barbarian asks the reader Who has not been an entryway shuddering in the wind Of another s want a rose nailed to some dark longing and bled Reeves extends his inquiry into the work of writers who have come before conversing with and sometimes contradicting Walt Whitman James Baldwin Sappho Dante and Aim C saire among others Expanding the tradition of poetry to reach from Gilgamesh and the Aeneid to Drake and Beyonc Reeves adds his voice to a long song that seeks to address itself only to freedom Best Barbarian asks the reader to stay close as it plunges into catastrophe and finds surprising moments of joy and intimacy This fearless musical and oracular collection announces Roger Reeves as an essential voice in American poetry Taking Measures Across the American Landscape James Corner, James M. Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1984-03 Living in the Landscape Arnold Berleant, 1997 In Living in the Landscape Arnold Berleant explores new ways of thinking about how we live and might live in the landscapes that enfold us Through the concepts of aesthetic engagement and environmental continuity he proposes a new paradigm that offers a holistic approach to the meaning of place and places of meaning in our lives Although environmental aesthetics is linked in the popular mind to dramatic vistas and monumental landscapes the Grand Canyon for example Berleant is much more concerned with the commonplace settings of everyday life He argues that our active appreciation of or aesthetic engagement with the prosaic landscapes of home work local travel and recreation plays a vital role in our discovery of hidden continuities as well as pleasure and meaning in the places we inhabit Berleant begins with a general introduction to environmental aesthetics identifying the kinds of experience meanings and values it involves and describing its historical sources and the issues with which it is concerned In the rest of the book he spotlights new directions in the field as they relate to education community creativity and the sacred and provides an insightful analysis of negative environmental aesthetics Throughout he is both thoughtful and entertaining as evidenced in his extended critique of the pop post modern environment of Disney World Berleant addresses issues commonly associated with the environmental movement e g preservation pollution control and quality of life But his study draws from a wide range of disciplines and for that reason should also appeal to scholars and students interested in art and aesthetics landscape architecture and planning urban and environmental design and cultural geography as well as environmental studies
