Activists And Nonactivists:

Activists and Nonactivists Larry C. Kerpelman, 1972 The Making of Pro-life Activists Ziad W. Munson, 2010-07-15 How do people become activists for causes they care deeply about Many people with similar backgrounds for instance fervently believe that abortion should be illegal but only some of them join the pro life movement By delving into the lives and beliefs of activists and nonactivists alike Ziad W Munson is able to lucidly examine the differences between them Through extensive interviews and detailed studies of pro life organizations across the nation Munson makes the startling discovery that many activists join up before they develop strong beliefs about abortion in fact some are even pro choice prior to their mobilization Therefore Munson concludes commitment to an issue is often a consequence rather than a cause of activism The Making of Pro life Activists provides a compelling new model of how people become activists while also offering a penetrating analysis of the complex relationship between religion politics and the pro life movement Policy makers activists on both sides of the issue and anyone seeking to understand how social movements take shape will find this book essential A Comparison of Activists and Nonactivists Karen Sue Conzett, 1989

Disconnect Morris P. Fiorina, Samuel J. Abrams, 2012-11-09 Red states blue states are we no longer the United States Morris P Fiorina here examines today s party system to reassess arguments about party polarization while offering a cogent overview of the American electorate Building on the arguments of Fiorina s acclaimed Culture War The Myth of a Polarized America this book explains how contemporary politics differs from that of previous eras and considers what might be done to overcome the unproductive politics of recent decades Drawing on polling results and other data Fiorina examines the disconnect between an unrepresentative political class and the citizenry it purports to represent showing how politicians have become more polarized while voters remain moderate how politicians rhetoric and activities reflect hot button issues that are not public priorities and how politicians dogmatic divisive and uncivil style of debate contrasts with the more civil discourse of ordinary Americans who tend to be more polite and open to compromise than their leaders Disconnect depicts politicians out of touch with the larger public distorting issues and information to appeal to narrow interest groups It can help readers better understand the political divide between leaders and the American public and help steer a course for change Interpreting Education Abraham Edel, 1989 The Indian Journal of Social Work ,1977 Focus Groups Graham R. Walden, 2008-07-07 This volume is the first of two volumes that address the most recent ten years 1997 2006 of focus group studies and research literature Volume one provides coverage of the arts and humanities social sciences and the nonmedical sciences and volume two concentrates on the medical and health sciences These volumes cover the English language academic literature books chapters in books journal articles and significant pamphlets available in libraries via interlibrary loan and online A variety of materials are included instructional guides handbooks reference works textbooks and academic journal literature In Focus Groups Volume I the following subject disciplines have been considered in the arts and humanities_linguistics music religion and sports and leisure studies in the social sciences_anthropology business cartography communication demography education law library science political science psychology and sociology and in the non medical sciences_agriculture biology engineering environmental sciences and physics The selected entries have a minimum of four pages and include 29 books 50 book chapters 349 articles and 10 pamphlets for a total of 438 entries An appendix includes the titles of the 245 journals cited along with the appropriate entry numbers for each Author and subject indexes provide access to the contents with the subject index providing access to unique terms The detailed contents pages are designed to enable the reader to quickly find appropriate entries through the use of extensive and detailed subheadings

Neighborhood and Community Environments Irwin Altman,Abraham Wandersman,2013-06-29 This ninth volume in the series deals with a fascinating and complex topic in the environment and behavior field Neighborhoods and communities are in various stages of formation and transition in almost every society nation and culture A variety of political economic and social factors have resulted in the formation of new communities and the transformation of older communities Thus we see nomadic people settling into stable communities new towns sprouting up around the world continuing suburban sprawl simultaneous deterioration renewal and gentrification of urban areas demographic changes in communities and so on As in previous volumes the range of content theory and methods represented in the various chapters is intended to be broadly based with perspectives rooted in several disciplines anthropology history psychology sociology urban studies Although many other disciplines also play an important role in the study and understanding of neighborhoods and community environments we hope that the contributions to this volume will at least present readers with a broad sampling if not a comprehensive treatment of the topic
