The Heroes of Faith Arthur Pink, 2020-03-26 Arthur Walkington Pink was born in Nottingham England to a corn merchant a devout non conformist of uncertain denomination though probably a Congregationalist Otherwise almost nothing is known of Pink s childhood or education except that he had some ability and training in music As a young man Pink joined the Theosophical Society and apparently rose to enough prominence within its ranks that Annie Besant its head offered to admit him to its leadership circle In 1908 he renounced Theosophy for evangelical Christianity Desiring to become a minister but unwilling to attend a liberal theological college in England Pink very briefly studied at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago in 1910 before taking the pastorate of the Congregational church in Silverton Colorado In 1912 Pink left Silverton probably for California and then took a joint pastorate of churches in rural Burkesville and Albany Kentucky In 1916 he married Vera E Russell 1893 1962 who had been reared in Bowling Green Kentucky Pink s next pastorate seems to have been in Scottsville Then the newlyweds moved in 1917 to Spartanburg South Carolina where Pink became pastor of Northside Baptist Church By this time Pink had become acquainted with prominent dispensationalist Fundamentalists such as Harry Ironside and Arno C Gaebelein and his first two books published in 1917 and 1918 were in agreement with that theological position Yet Pink s views were changing and during these years he also wrote the first edition of The Sovereignty of God 1918 which argued that God did not love sinners and had deliberately created unto damnation those who would not accept Christ Whether because of his Calvinistic views his nearly incredible studiousness his weakened health or his lack of sociability Pink left Spartanburg in 1919 believing that God would have me give myself to writing But Pink then seems next to have taught the Bible with some success in California for a tent evangelist named Thompson while continuing his intense study of Puritan writings

Reason and the Rule of Faith Christopher J. Thompson, Steven A. Long, 2010-11-04 Inspired by the Catholic intellectual tradition these essays are the fruit of a series of seminars sponsored by the Center for Catholic Studies and the Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity at the University of St Thomas in Saint Paul Minnesota With a special focus on the works of John Paul II especially Veritatis Splendor and Fides et Ratio the authors bring to light a host of considerations that set the work of his pontificate within the illuminating light of the living intellectual tradition

The Many Faces of Faith Michael Taylor, 2009-12-02 Faith is one of the most critical aspects of the Christian life because it is the means by which we receive all that God has secured for us yet the nature of faith is one of the most misunderstood concepts of Christianity Some conceptualize faith as some mental state that one must reach before they are able to tap into God's resources Others view faith as some sort of incorporeal substance that is out there for which we must reach All of these concepts of faith are deficient if not heretical and yet all of them are found in the church Others view faith as a mere fantasy or hope with no basis in reality and thus religious claims are excluded from the arena of knowledge For a number of years my heart has been thrilled over the doctrine of faith as it is received and taught among evangelical Christians everywhere Great emphasis is laid upon faith in orthodox circles and that is good but still I am troubled Specifically my fear is that the modern conception of faith is not the biblical one that when the teachers of our day use the word they do not mean what the Bible meant when they used it I also share the same concerns with A W Tozer when he said the cause of my uneasiness are these 1 The lack of spiritual fruits in the lives of so many who claim to have faith 2 The rarity of a radical change in the conduct and general outlook of persons professing their new faith in Christ as their personal Savior 3 The failure of our teachers to define or even describe the thing to which the word faith is supposed to refer 4 The heartbreaking failure of multitudes of seekers is they are even so earnest to make anything out of the doctrine or to receive any satisfying experience through it 5 The real danger that a doctrine that is parroted so widely and received so uncritically by so many is false as understood by them 6 I have seen faith put forward as an escape from reality a refuge from the necessity of hard thinking a hiding place for weak character natural optimism emotional thrills and nervous tics Therefore in the pages of this book I will endeavor to outline for your benefit the dynamics of faith What is faith How does faith work How to grow in faith The power of faith the Excellency of faith the demand of faith the perseverance of faith the challenges of faith the object of faith the effect of faith the response of faith the discipline of faith the necessity of faith and many more are discussed
