Acting Beautifully:

Acting Beautifully Sigi Jottkandt, 2012-02-01 What is the matter with the women in Henry James In The Portrait of a Lady The Wings of the Dove and his short story The Altar of the Dead one woman returns to a monster of a husband another dies rather than confront the truth of her lover s engagement while yet another stakes her all on having a candle lit for a dead lover only to promptly reject it Exploring these strange choices Sigi Jottkandt argues that the singularity of these acts lies in their ethical nature and that the ethical principle involved cannot be divorced from the question of aesthetics She combines close readings of James with suggestive tours through Kantian aesthetics and set theory to uncover the aesthetic underpinning of the Lacanian ethical act which has been largely overlooked in the current drive to discover a Cartesian origin for the subject as the subject of science

Globally and Locally Alan G. McQuillan, Ashley L. Preston, 1998 Globally and Locally tackles the economic difficulties of succeeding in a world that is increasingly global while surviving on the local level It brings together the ideas of several scholars on the political and economic strategies to follow in the modern global market The editors examine the United States Scotland and Japan on the corporate community and regional levels and make recommendations to improve the present economic structures without completely replacing them Each concept focuses on the unique goal of charting a middle path that binds theory with practice culture with nature economy with ecology and the global with the local A strategy is devised for global success without neglecting matters such as culture the environment small towns or rural areas
