Overland ,2006 Labour History ,2006 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal Caroline Hamilton,2007 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal is an eclectic collection of essays from emerging academics who engage with the notion of refusal both as the embodiment of a resistance to conventional boundaries between academic disciplines and as a concept with an underlying negative or reactive force that can be widely interpreted and applied The applications of refusal outlined in this volume ranging from activism and the politics of cultural production through to problems of identity and knowledge classification raise questions about often elided relationships of agency and complicity in routine experience The sense of refusal that emerges from this book is perhaps most easily classified by what it is not namely a prescriptive conclusive or unified account of what it is to reject react or work against any particular instance of theory or practice in any given domain The value of a thematically oriented collection like this is its ability to work across disciplines media and philosophical frameworks rather than limiting its focus to a narrow territory According to Herbert Marcuse refusal must not only be the guiding principle for all artistic creation it must also be a manifestation of artistic creation itself With this volume we have attempted to compose a collection which is not only theoretically guided by refusal but practically informed by it as well The collection in itself constitutes we hope a constructive rejection of the usual constrictions of discipline and approach placed upon new scholars This rich collection of essays on the political aesthetic and ethical dimensions of that form of social action called refusal is an important contribution to our understanding of the tensions and contradictions of contemporary culture John Frow Professor of English Literary Studies at the University of Melbourne Wolves in Sheep's Clothing Stephen Marshall,2007 Forget the neoconservatives The biggest threat to Western democracy is the US liberal elite The Winemakers Jack M. Bickham,1977 A novel of California wine producers The Disappearance of the Universe Gary R. Renard,2003 What would you do if you were sitting quietly in your living room when a mysterious couple appeared from out of nowhere and then told you they were ascended masters who had come to reveal some shocking secrets of existence and teach you the miraculous powers of advanced forgiveness When two such teachers appeared before Gary Renard in 1992 he chose to listen to them and ask a lot of impertinent questions The result is this startling book an extraordinary record of 17 mind bending conversations that took place over nearly a decade reorienting the author's life and giving the world an uncompromising introduction to a spiritual teaching destined to change human history People's Movements, People's Press Bob Ostertag,2006 America was born in an act of rebellion and protest and dissent have been crucial to our democracy ever since Along the way movements for social justice have created a wide array of pamphlets broadsides newsletters newspapers and even glossy magazines In People's Movements People's Press Bob Ostertag brings this hidden history to light examining the publications of the abolitionist woman suffrage gay and lesbian and environmental movements as well as the underground GI press during the Vietnam War This story takes us from the sparse privately owned media environment of the nineteenth century to the corporate media saturation of the present Within these publications we find powerful debates about the direction of a movement impassioned cries for rights and civil liberties lonely voices reaching out to others after being alienated by the mainstream press and the unaccepting world around them and demands that now seem surprisingly reasonable but were at one time quite revolutionary With both plain language and rigorous scholarship Ostertag tells the story not only of the publications but of the many colorful characters who created them The story of the social justice movement press is deeply intertwined with the story of the movements themselves In fact Ostertag shows how reliance on the printed word fundamentally shaped what we now know as social movements People s Movements People s Press then offers a new view from the ground up of social transformation in America and raises the question of how social movements will change as they move from print to the Internet as their primary means of communication

BOOK JACKET "No Fit Place for Women"? Deborah Brennan, Louise A. Chappell, 2006 Focusing on women in NSW politics this includes an analysis of women s role in NSW Parliament political parties and the public sector Australian Book Review, 2006 Postcolonial and Queer Theories John Charles Hawley, 2001-02-28 Since the 1960s American and Western European gays have set the agenda for sexual liberation and defined its emergence Western models of homosexuality often provide the only globally recognizable frameworks for discussing gay and lesbian cultures around the world and thus Western interpretive schemes are imposed on non Western societies At the same time gay and lesbian lifestyles in emerging countries do not always neatly fit Western paradigms and data from those countries often clash with dominant Western models So too the literature of emerging countries often depicts homosexuality in ways which challenge the existing tools of Western literary critics The thirteen contributors to this book examine the implied imposition of a heavily capitalistic white and generally male model of homosexuality on the emerging world By combining postcolonial and queer theoretical approaches this volume suggests alternative frameworks for describing sexuality around the world and for exploring non Western literary representations of gay and lesbian lifestyles The volume concludes with a chapter assessing new questions in both postcolonial and queer theorizing that suggest common concerns and many avenues for future research The Nation, 1916
