The Quantum of Explanation Randall E. Auxier, Gary L. Herstein, 2017-03-31 The Quantum of Explanation advances a bold new theory of how explanation ought to be understood in philosophical and cosmological inquiries Using a complete interpretation of Alfred North Whitehead s philosophical and mathematical writings and an interpretive structure that is essentially new Auxier and Herstein argue that Whitehead has never been properly understood nor has the depth and breadth of his contribution to the human search for knowledge been assimilated by his successors This important book effectively applies Whitehead s philosophy to problems in the interpretation of science empirical knowledge and nature It develops a new account of philosophical naturalism that will contribute to the current naturalism debate in both Analytic and Continental philosophy Auxier and Herstein also draw attention to some of the most important differences between the process theology tradition and Whitehead's thought arguing in favor of a Whiteheadian naturalism that is more or less independent of theological concerns This book offers a clear and comprehensive introduction to Whitehead's philosophy and is an essential resource for students and scholars interested in American philosophy the philosophy of mathematics and physics and issues associated with naturalism explanation and radical empiricism Mind, 1916 A journal of philosophy covering epistemology metaphysics philosophy of language philosophy of logic and philosophy of mind Man and the Cosmos Joseph Alexander Leighton, 1922 Knowledge and Belief Frederick F. Schmitt, 2006-11-22 Knowledge from Plato onwards has been considered in relation to justified belief Current debate has centred around the nature of the justification and whether justified belief can be considered an internal or external matter Epistemological internalists argue that the subject must be able to reflect upon a belief to complete the process of justification The externalists on the other hand claim that it is only necessary to consider whether the belief is reliably formed and argue that the ability to know by reflection is not required for a justified belief In the historical section of this book the three most important epistemologists Plato Descartes and Hume as well as the ancient epistemologies of the stoics Academics and Pyrrhonians are considered In reconsidering the history of epistemology the author is led to argue against the view that internalism is historically dominant His critique of internalism is then developed into a sustained argument against many of its forms and he goes on to defend an externalist reliabilist epistemology Selections Arthur Schopenhauer, 1928 History of the Development of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ Isaak August Dorner, 1890 The Journal of Philosophy, 1982 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 The Philosophy of Reflection Hodgson, 1878 Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, Louis Herbert Gray, 1917 Japanese Modality Mayumi Yuki Johnson, 1994 New York State Education Department Bulletin, 1905 Ten Epochs of Church History: Ludlow, J.M., The age of the crusades John Fulton, 1896 The English Utilitarians Leslie Stephen, 1912 Christianity and the nineteenth century.
