手太陰經穴

General	The Lung channel starts on the lateral chest near the coronal process and travels up the chest slightly, before entering the upper limb. It then descends the anterior aspect of the limb towards the thumb, where it ends on the radial side of the thumb. It has 11 points. It is grouped with the Large Intestine under the Metal element in five-element theory.
Main specificity	Originating in the Middle Energies, the channel is said to have lines downward with the Large Intestine (its Yang paired organ), and ascends, through the diaphragm, spreading through the Lungs, trachea and larynx, emerging at Lung 1 just below the lateral end of the clavicle and inferior to the coronal process. Lung 2 is above the coronal process and the channel then travels downward along the ribs, through the cubital fossa, and over the flexor and radial deviators of the hand and wrist ending slightly laterally towards the thumb at the radial styloid. It finishes on the radial side of the base of the thumb.
