Dies Domini, on Keeping the Lord's Day Holy Catholic Church. Pope (1978-2005 : John Paul II), 1998 Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, OFM, 2005-08-10 With an equal emphasis on every word in the title and with a distinctly American perspective Himes and his distinguished associate editors and contributors have assembled the most thorough and authoritative assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching to date likely to remain the touchstone volume for decades This culmination of many years of effort by twenty stellar scholars has produced a reference work for anyone interested in understanding or studying the key documents that comprise the central corpus of Catholic social teaching In addition to interrogations of the major documents this volume provides an understanding of the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII s Rerum Novarum Finally there is a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address By any standard Modern Catholic Social Teaching is a remarkable work intellectually rigorous and deeply faithful it provides accessible and thought provoking insights into the heart of a belief tradition that every Catholic will find invaluable Newman, Canon Law, & Development David P. Long, 2024-10-25 John Henry Newman is well known as a theologian philosopher historian writer University rector and poet but can he also be associated with the field of canon law When Newman first proposed the possibility of doctrinal development as proof that the Catholic faith was free from corruption and error he claimed the Church is declared to be the great and special support of the Truth her various functionaries are said to be means towards the settlement of diversities and of uncertainty of doctrine and securing unity of faith For Newman these various functionaries included not only apostles prophets evangelists and pastors but also theologians and as is argued in this work canon lawyers While Newman and doctrinal development have become well explored topics in the field of theology there has been little scholarship on how Newman s thoughts on doctrinal development can influence current canon law and Church governance David Long addresses that lacuna by offering a systematic analysis of Newman s concept of development within current canonical practice It starts by tracing Newman s notions of personal judgment public discussion and episcopal moderation followed by a presentation of the current canonical understanding of the theologian and finally an application of the connection between Newman s theory on development and present canonical legislation as it involves the role of the theologian By undertaking such an application and by creating a model for discussion that preserves both development and Tradition this work humbly proposes a valuable model for understanding the theologian's contribution within the life of the contemporary Church in ways not previously explored Catholic Bioethics and the Gift of Human Life, 2nd Edition William May, 2008-07-25 In this revision of his already classic text William May shows us once again the wisdom of the Catholic Church's moral tradition in its application to contemporary bioethics Illuminating and engaging and with the attention to nuance that marks all of May's writing Edward J Furton M A Ph D Ethicist and Director of Publications The National Catholic Bioethics Center With so much bioethical thinking supporting the culture of death I can think of no better champion of a culture of life than Professor William E May Professor May has given us a book which is useful not only for its masterful summery of the moral magisterium on bioethics but also for its treatment of such issues as contraception artificial reproduction the care of the dying human experimentation and the definition of death and organ transplants Dr Mark S Latkovic Associate Professor of Moral Theology Sacred Heart Major Seminary What the Church teaches and why on issues of euthanasia in vitro fertilization genetic counseling assisted suicide living wills persistent vegetative state organ transplants and more Catholic Bioethics and the Gift of Human Life, Third Edition William E. complexities of modern healthcare scenarios and that offers new suggestions for social policy and regulation Philosophical argument is complemented by Catholic theology and analysis of social and biomedical trends to make this an auspicious example of a new generation of Catholic bioethical writing which has relevance for people of all faiths and none The Modern Inquisition Paul Collins,2002-07-08 The Inquisition ceased burning and torturing heretics in the 18th century A milder punishment awaits the dissidents today principally excommunication or banishment from official teaching positions Paul Collins has discovered through his own experience and extensive research that the impact of the Vatican's investigations through the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith can be quite profound Collins is the controversial Australian Catholic priest recently investigated by the Vatican for alleged heresy He served the Church for 33 years and is generally esteemed for his dry wit and his ability to make his vocation accessible a trait many appreciated in an increasingly secular world The Vatican however views Collins's less than reverential views as heretical and has been investigating him since 1997 when Collins book Papal Power was singled out for supposed doctrinal problems The Modern Inquisition compiled over the four years that the mysterious and secretive CDF deliberated on Collins work brings together the stories of others who have also been pursued condemned or vilified by the CDF Here are seven fascinating accounts of how the modern Inquisition operates what it is like to be accused by anonymous informers investigated in secret and tried at arms length with no recourse to appeal No Turning Back Margaret O'Gara,2014 Includes bibliographical references pages 238 245 and index The Irish Ecclesiastical Record ,1930 Religious Leadership and Christian Identity Doris Nauer,Rein Nauta,2004 Research into the field of religious leadership in relation to Christian identity is highly complex What should be meant by religious leadership What do we really mean if we talk about Christian identity And most of all what implies the and between religious leadership and Christian identity Is there a necessary substantial relation between both If so how has leadership contributed in the past to Christian identity and how will it in the contemporary context stimulate a Christian identity The Pope Speaks ,2002 Includes recent papal letters addresses and other major Church documents
