Biodiversity Management Rural De:

Biodiversity Management in Rural Development Natural Resources Institute (Great Britain), Great Britain. Department for International Development, 2002-01 This work takes a cross disciplinary approach to examine how better to accommodate biodiversity concerns in situations where poverty reduction and welfare improvement are the primary aims of development It will be of interest to all people with a practical interest in managing biological resources or biodiversity in developing countries those with a similar concern for economic or social development and improving the livelihoods of the rural poor and also to staff of governments donor agencies NGOs and other organizations with responsibility for rural development or biodiversity conservation and management Agrobiodiversity, Community Participation and Landscapes in Agroecology Tomás Enrique León-Sicard , Diego Griffon, Massimo De Marchi, 2024-08-20 Maintaining and managing agrobiodiversity is a key issue proposed by agroecology not only to maintain high agricultural productivity but also to increase the resilience stability and sustainability of the agroecosystems meant as the functional relationship between the natural assets and the human use of them at farm and farm matrix scale The main hypothesis of this approach is that the greater the interactions between organisms of different trophic levels edaphic organisms multiple crops weed plants herbivores carnivores plants in living fences corridors or forest patches within agroecosystems the greater will be the possibilities of obtaining abundant and varied harvests with fewer external inputs pesticides fertilizers and better environmental performance The agrobiodiversity is meant as the variety and the disposition of the cultivations pastures farms that affect the soil properties and create habitat diversity landscape diversity and connectivity At the level of landscapes or territories the set of biodiverse agroecosystems generate natural matrices that have a powerful impact on the recovery and restoration of forest corridors which in turn positively influence many ecosystem services for nature conservation and free movement and recovery of many populations of animal species including those in danger of extinction Integrating Traditional Ecological Knowledge into Ecology, Evolution, and Conservation Thiago Gonçalves-Souza, Rômulo Romeu Nóbrega Alves, Ulysses Paulino Albuquerque, Washington Soares Ferreira Júnior, 2022-10-05 Tropical Fruit Tree Diversity Bhuwon Sthapit, Hugo Lamers, Ramanatha Rao, Arwen Bailey, 2016-05-12 Farmers have developed a range of agricultural practices to sustainably use and maintain a wide diversity of crop species in many parts of the world This book documents good practices innovated by farmers and collects key reviews on good practices from global experts not only from the case study countries but also from Brazil China and other parts of Asia and Latin America A good practice for diversity is defined as a system organization or process that over time and space maintains enhances and creates crop genetic diversity and ensures its availability to and from farmers and other users Drawing on experiences from a UNEP GEF project on Conservation and Sustainable Use of Wild and Cultivated Tropical Fruit Tree Diversity for Promoting Livelihoods Food Security and Ecosystem Services with case studies from India Indonesia Malaysia and Thailand the authors show how methods for identifying good practices are still evolving and challenges in scaling up remain They identify key principles effective as a strategy for mainstreaming good practice into development efforts Few books draw principles and lessons learned from good practices This book fills this gap by combining good practices from the research project on tropical fruit trees with chapters from external experts to broaden its scope and relevance The Role of Biodiversity Conservation in the Transition to Rural Sustainability Stephen S. Light,2004 This book presents interdisciplinary advances in theory and practice pertaining to rural sustainability and sets forth an action research agenda and policy prescriptions to support rural sustainability with special emphasis on the Accession Countries to the EU The book will address four themes Routledge Handbook of Agricultural Biodiversity Danny Hunter,Luigi Guarino,Charles Spillane,Peter C. McKeown,2017-10-03 The world relies on very few crop and animal species for agriculture and to supply its food needs In recent decades there has been increased appreciation of the risk this implies for food security and quality especially in times of environmental change As a result agricultural biodiversity has moved to the top of research and policy agendas This Handbook presents a comprehensive overview of our current knowledge of agricultural biodiversity in a series of specially commissioned chapters It draws on multiple disciplines including plant and animal genetics ecology crop and animal science food studies and nutrition as well as social science subjects which explore the socio economic cultural institutional legal and policy aspects of agricultural biodiversity It focuses not only on the core requirements to deliver a sustainable agriculture and food supply but also highlights the additional ecosystem services provided by a diverse and resilient agricultural landscape and farming practices The book provides an indispensable reference textbook for a wide range of courses in agriculture ecology biodiversity conservation and environmental studies Indigenous Peoples' food systems Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,Alliance of Bioversity International,International Center for Tropical Agriculture,2021-06-25 This publication provides an overview of the common and unique sustainability elements of Indigenous Peoples food systems in terms of natural resource management access to the market diet diversity indigenous peoples governance systems and links to traditional knowledge and indigenous languages While enhancing the learning on Indigenous Peoples food systems it will raise awareness on the need to enhance the protection of Indigenous Peoples food systems as a source of livelihood for the 476 million indigenous inhabitants in the world while contributing to the Zero Hunger Goal In addition the UN Decade of Action on Nutrition 2016 2025 and the UN Food Systems Summit call on the enhancement of sustainable food systems and on the importance of diversifying diets with nutritious foods while broadening the existing food base and preserving biodiversity This is a feature characteristic of Indigenous Peoples food systems since hundreds of years which can provide answers to the current debate on sustainable food systems and resilience Strategies and Tools for a Sustainable Rural Rio de Janeiro Udo Nehren,Sabine Schlöter,Claudia Raedig,Dietmar Sattler,Helga Hissa,2018-08-16 This book is a compilation of recent developments in land ecosystem and water management in the Brazilian state of Rio de Janeiro The state is located in the biodiversity hotspot of the Atlantic Forest Mata Atlântica a biome characterized by high biological diversity and endemism At the same time the state of Rio de Janeiro emerged to one of the economic hubs in Latin America This development process has been accompanied by population growth industrialization urbanization as well as consumption and degradation of land and water resources In the past years many efforts have been made to stop or at least slow down these degradation processes and restore degraded environments with the overall goal to bring together sustainable management of natural resources nature conservation and economic development An overview is provided of the different strategies and tools that have been developed in the fields of agriculture ecosystem management and biodiversity integrated water management land restoration disaster risk reduction and climate change adaptation as well as environmental governance and economic instruments This book covers a wide spectrum from applied research to science policy interfaces planning concepts and technical tools and has a model character for other rural areas in Latin America Target groups are scientists practitioners policy makers and graduate students in the field of environmental management The different chapters are written by researchers and practitioners of the German Brazilian project INTECRAL Integrated Eco Technologies and Services for a Sustainable Rural Rio de Janeiro the rural development program Rio Rural under the state secretary for agriculture and animal husbandry as well as invited scientists from Brazilian universities and research institutes It bridges existing gaps between science policies and practice in rural development Community Biodiversity Management Walter de Boef,2013 The conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity are issues that have been high on the policy agenda since the first Earth Summit in Rio in 1992 As part of efforts to implement in situ conservation a methodology referred to as community biodiversity management CBM has been developed by those engaged in this arena CBM contributes to the empowerment of farming communities to manage their biological resources and make informed decisions on the conservation and use of agrobiodiversity This book is the first to set out a clear overview of CBM as a methodology for meeting socio environmental changes CBM is shown to be a key strategy that promotes community resilience and contributes to the conservation of plant genetic resources The authors present the underlying concepts and theories of CBM as well as its methodology and practices and introduce case studies primarily from Brazil Ethiopia France India and Nepal Contributors include farmers leaders of farmers organizations professionals from conservation and development organizations students and scientists The book offers inspiration to all those involved in the conservation and use of agrobiodiversity within livelihood development and presents ideas for the implementation of farmers rights The wide collection of experiences illustrates the efforts made by communities throughout the world to cope with change while using diversity and engaging in learning processes It links these grassroots efforts with debates in policy arenas as a means to respond to the unpredictable changes such as climate change that communities face in sustaining their livelihoods Rural Development Abstracts ,2010 PGR ,1997
