Biography Mozart:

Mozart Franz Xaver Niemetschek, 2007 Franz Xaver Niemetschek was born in 1766 in what is now the Czech Republic and came from a musical family which gave him a deep appreciation and admiration for Mozart's genius. In 1798 he published his biography on Mozart with a touching dedication to Haydn, the only one written by an eyewitness and authorized by Mozart's widow Constanze. It is one of the earliest specimens of musical biography which, compared with other branches of biography, was still in its infancy even in the later part of the 19th century. In this sense it is an important document of music history. However, this loving and intimate portrait of Mozart, based on documents, letters, and other original sources, also conveys a vivid picture of the social and especially courtly life that formed the background of Mozart's sheer magical talents as composer and virtuoso.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Piero Melograni, 2007 Publisher description Mozart Robert Gutman, 2011-08-31 Mozart: A Cultural Biography is a fresh interpretation of a musical genius, meticulously researched and gracefully written. It places Mozart's life and music in the context of the intellectual, political, and artistic currents of eighteenth-century Europe. Even as he delves into philosophic and aesthetic questions, Robert Gutman keeps in sight clearly and firmly the composer and his works. He discusses the major genres in which Mozart worked: chamber music, liturgical theatre, and keyboard compositions, concerto, symphony, opera, and oratorio. All of these riches unfold within the framework of the composer's brief but remarkable life. With Gutman's informed and sensitive handling, Mozart emerges in a light more luminous than in previous renderings. The composer was an affectionate and generous man to family and friends, self-deprecating, witty, winsome, but also an austere moralist, incisive and purposeful. Mozart is both an extraordinary portrait of a man in his time and a brilliant distillation of musical thought.
