

— TYPES OF BIOGRAPHIES —

Autobiography

An autobiography is literally a self-written account of a person's life, which can go from diaries of the deepest, most private recollections to notebooks and journals with borderline formal tones.

Memoir

This is often confused with an autobiography, which is understandable. However, memoirs tend to be more personal, telling only a part of a person's life.

Literary Biography

A popular genre in nonfiction, a literary biography is a type of literature focusing on the life of an author's chosen subject.

Historical Biography

Biographies of this type would set the course for defining human achievement.
