Aperture 92 Fall 1983:

Danny Lyon Julian Cox, Elisabeth Sussman, Alexander Nemerov, Danica Willard Sachs, Ed Halter, Alan Rinzler, 2016-01-01

The first comprehensive overview of an influential American photographer and filmmaker whose work is known for its intimacy and social engagement. Coming of age in the 1960s, the photographer Danny Lyon (b. 1942) distinguished himself with work that emphasized intimate social engagement. In 1962, Lyon traveled to the segregated South to photograph the civil rights movement. Subsequent projects on biker culture, the demolition and redevelopment of lower Manhattan, and the Texas prison system, and more recently on the Occupy movement and the vanishing culture in China's booming Shanxi Province, share Lyon's signature immersive approach and his commitment to social and political issues that concern those on the margins of society. Lyon's photography is paralleled by his work as a filmmaker and a writer. Danny Lyon: Message to the Future is the first in-depth examination of this leading figure in American photography and film, and the first publication to present his influential bodies of work in all media in their full context. Lead essayists Julian Cox and Elisabeth Sussman provide an account of Lyon's five-decade career. Alexander Nemerov writes about Lyon's work in Knoxville, Tennessee. Ed Halter assesses the artist's films. Danica Willard Sachs evaluates his photomontages, and Julian Cox interviews Alan Rinzler about his role in publishing Lyon's earliest works. With extensive back matter and illustrations, this publication will be the most comprehensive account of this influential artist's work.

A Gust of Photo-Philia Alexandra Moschovi, 2020-12-15

The first transnational history of photography's accommodation in the art museum. Photography was long regarded as a middle-brow art by the art institution. Yet at the turn of the millennium, it became the hot global art of our time. In this book, part institutional history, part account of shifting photographic theories and practices, Alexandra Moschovi tells the story of photography's accommodation in and as contemporary art in the art museum. Archival research of key exhibitions and the contrasting collecting policies of MoMA, Tate, the Guggenheim, the V&A, and the Centre Pompidou offer new insights into how art as photography and photography as art have been collected and exhibited since the 1930s. Moschovi argues that this accommodation not only changed photography's status in art culture and society but also played a significant role in the rebranding of the art museum as a cultural and social site.

Cartoon Vision Dan Bashara, 2019-04-02

In Cartoon Vision, Dan Bashara examines American animation alongside the modern design boom of the postwar era. Focusing especially on United Productions of America (UPA), a studio whose graphic abstract style defined the postwar period, Bashara considers animation akin to a laboratory exploring new models of vision and space alongside theorists and practitioners in other fields. The links theoretical, historical, and aesthetic between animators, architects, designers, artists, and filmmakers reveal a specific midcentury modernism that rigorously reimagined the senses. Cartoon Vision invokes the American Bauhaus legacy of László Moholy-Nagy and György Kepes and advocates for animation's pivotal role in a utopian design project of retraining the public's vision to better apprehend a rapidly changing modern world.
