Contemporary Apocalyptic Rhetoric Barry Brummett, 1991-11-30

Intellectuals today cringe when a politician speaks of the Second Coming the millennium or the Antichrist Certain questions naturally arise about those who literally expect the end of the world in our day Why do they think this Why do some people believe them How do their exhortations work to persuade an audience and to move that audience to actions and commitments These are the motivating questions of Contemporary Apocalyptic Rhetoric which describes apocalyptic as a rhetorical genre of discourse Barry Brummett first recasts insights drawn from past scholarly and theological studies to demonstrate their relevance to contemporary apocalyptic then examines a variety of real apocalyptic to illustrate the ways in which these rhetorical discourses actually work The discussion focuses on those strategies arguments and stylistic features that are peculiar to apocalyptic and that support its social and political claims Following an introductory first chapter Chapter Two describes how apocalyptic rhetoric links a psychological context to an esoteric grand order underlying all of time and the cosmos Chapter Three compares premillennial and postmillennial apocalyptic on three dimensions to show the different approaches they take to reach their audiences Chapter Four describes specific rhetorical techniques designed to maintain a mystic persona and urge social and political commitments on audiences The final two chapters apply the author's theories to secular and religious apocalyptic both premillennial Hal Lindsey and Ravi Batra and postmillennial Francis

Encyclopedia of Apocalyptic Literature Valerie P. Zimbaro,1996 This text which is by no means inclusive of all of the world s apocalyptic writings is intended both as an introduction to this timely literary genre as well as a tribute to the world s major authors whose prose and poetry reflect their respective hopes dreams and fears for the world s last days Although the book is intended to address apocalyptic literature across cultures there is a significant dearth of material related to works by writers from Eastern cultures This omission is an obvious one inasmuch as the concept of an apocalypse or a singular cataclysmic ending is essentially antithetical to most cyclical Eastern philosophies In an attempt to analyze such apocalyptic themes of either non Western primitive or pre literate cultures a list of entries pertaining to significant apocalyptic myths legends and scriptures has been provided in appendix D
