Appian Way From Its Foundation To The Middle Ages:

The Appian Way Giuseppina Pisani Sartorio, Francesca Ventre, 2004 The Appian Way was the first great artery from Rome to southern Italy and the model for all roads originating in the ancient capital Conceived by Appius Claudius in 312 B C the thoroughfare provided easy access to Capua the most important junction in southern Italy and facilitated Roman expansion into the southern peninsula Paved in black basalt the road was flanked by level pedestrian footpaths and bordered by tombs villas and pleasant rest and refreshment areas along its 365 miles which could be walked in thirteen to fourteen days The Ancient Appian Way provides an engaging account of the Appian Way s origins and historical context The structure of this lavishly illustrated book mirrors the traveler s route south from Rome making it an ideal guide to the legendary road for all those with an interest in exploring ancient Rome

Geography of Time, Place, Movement and Networks, Volume 2 Stanley D. Brunn, 2024-05-23 This book explores journeys in a time context with a focus on places place meanings and landscapes Whether the journey relates to ancient or modern trails roads or railroads or a historical or contemporary pilgrimage or a tourist venture in social contexts the book addresses the importance of places and environmental settings whereby time itself is described and defined in multiple contexts The chapters discuss among others archaeological and pre history settings tourism settings and heritage events as well as regional and transnational migration routes and those used by historical nomadic cultures and postmodern nomads Some time and place journeys are fluid and dynamic and re interpreted while for others there is much sameness in the visible landscapes Retaining the past and reconstructing the past are both journeys That sameness concept is also applied to cultural and political worlds where there is little progress or reform to address social welfare and empowerment This book opens the door for exploring shallow and deep journeys by those in the humanities and social sciences at local national and regional scales
