Apples Of Your Eye:

A Proverb a Day Keeps the Devil Away Philip Ayers, 2008-10 A Proverb a Day Keeps the Devil Away applies the principles of God found in the Book of Proverbs to daily living Illustrations are used to trigger the memories of its readers to past and present experiences in life hopefully causing the lesson of each devotion to profoundly impact the reader These illustrations stem from relationships home work play decisions reactions thoughts injustice and justice Some are humorous and some very serious Each one demonstrates the theme of that verse The Book of Proverbs is as timely as time itself Times have changed but people have not They still face the hard issues of life the same fears and hurts the same temptations and sin the same struggle with what is right and wrong and the same questions about what role God really plays in their life This devotional study aids its readers in getting a grip on these challenges Philip Ayers was born in Roanoke Virginia on March 2nd 1948 He is the second born of a family of five Very early in his life his family moved to Salem Virginia where he resided until he joined the United States Marine Corps at the age of seventeen He served in the Viet Nam conflict He was wounded three times and was awarded the Navy Commendation Metal with Combat V for heroic action in the face of the enemy Philip played quarterback for the Marine Corps national football team the Quantico Marines He was honorably discharged at the rank of sergeant Philip was saved on March 30th 1980 Jesus Christ called him to ministry in 1981 He is the pastor of a local church in Roanoke Virginia He brings a large pool of experience and Bible knowledge to his readers

Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting s authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what s the real thing and what is spurious

The National Nurseryman, 1909 Thinking Touch in Partnering and Contact Improvisation Malaika Sarco-Thomas, 2020-09-14 What happens when artists take touch as a starting point for embodied research. This collection of essays offers unique insights into contact in dance by considering the importance of touch in choreography, philosophy, scientific research, social dance, and education. The performing arts have benefitted from the growth of an ever-widening spectrum of tactile explorations since the advent of contact improvisation (CI) in 1972. Building on the research proposal, CI offers partnering forms such as tango, martial arts, and somatic therapies that have helped shape the landscape of embodied practices in contemporary dance. Presenting a range of practitioner and scholarly perspectives relevant to undergraduate students and researchers alike, this volume considers the significance of touch in the development of 21st-century pedagogy, art-making, and performance philosophy.

Primary Education, 1899 A Dictionary of American Proverbs Wolfgang Mieder, 1992 Americans have a gift for coining proverbs. A picture is worth a thousand words was not as you might imagine the product of ancient Chinese wisdom; it was actually minted by advertising executive Fred Barnard in a 1921 advertisement for Printer's Ink magazine. After all, Americans are first and foremost a practical people, and proverbs can be loosely defined as pithy statements that are generally accepted as true and useful. The next logical step would be to gather all of this wisdom together for a truly American celebration of shrewd advice. A Dictionary of American Proverbs is the first major collection of proverbs in the English language based on oral sources rather than written ones. Listed alphabetically according to their most significant key word, it features over 15,000 entries, including uniquely American proverbs that have never before been recorded, as well as thousands of traditional proverbs that have found their way into American speech from classical, biblical, British, continental European, and American literature. Based on the fieldwork conducted over thirty years by the American Dialect Society, this volume is complete with historical references to the earliest written sources and supplies variants and recorded geographical distribution after each proverb. Many surprised await the reader in this vast treasure trove of wit and wisdom. Collected here are nuggets of popular wisdom on all aspects of American life: weather, agriculture, travel, money, business, food, neighbors, friends, manners, government, politics, law, health, education, religion, music, song, and dance. And to further enhance browsing pleasure, the editors have provided a detailed guide to the use of the work. While it's true that many of our best-known proverbs have been supplied by the ever-present Anonymous, many more can be attributed to some very famous Americans like Ernest Hemingway, Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, Mark Twain, J. Pierpont Morgan, Thomas Alva Edison, Abigail Adams, and Ralph Waldo Emerson, to name but a few offered in
