Antropología Visual:

Diccionario Akal de Etnología y Antropología Pierre Bonte, Michael Izard, 2003-11-19 Buscar la unidad del hombre en la diversidad de sus obras es un ya viejo intento que desde hace poco más de un siglo define el programa de una ciencia particular. Bajo los diversos nombres que recibe: etnografía, etnología, antropología, podemos definirla como un modo original de conocimiento. Lévi-Strauss. Esto nos permite comprender por qué la aproximación antropológica hoy no se limita a las sociedades largo tiempo llamadas primitivas sino que también se aplica al dominio de lo histórico así como a los problemas sociales y culturales del mundo contemporáneo. Pero además para presentar la antropología a un público muy amplio y de modo general era preciso incluir tanto el cómo como el qué de su conocer. En este diccionario presentamos los principales conceptos de la antropología, los objetos, los dominios y los métodos de análisis e investigación que ella misma se ha dado. Las teorías que marcan su desarrollo, las principales figuras que lo ilustran y en fin los elementos de una síntesis etnográfica que corresponde a grandes áreas culturales del mundo. Antropologías en América Latina Tocancipá Falla, Jairo, 2017-10-30.Cuáles son los alcances y retos que se presentan en las prácticas de las antropologías en América Latina. Este volumen intenta responder a este interrogante vinculando las experiencias de varios antropólogos y antropólogas de once países. La compilación busca ilustrar la convergencia de varias tendencias y la riqueza del análisis que deriva de las experiencias de las antropólogas en la región. Film Festivals and Anthropology María-Paz Peirano, Aida Vallejo, 2017-03-07. This collection explores the intersections between anthropology and film festival studies. Film and anthropology scholars map ethnographic film festivals and ethnographic approaches to festivals worldwide. The book provides a historical reconstruction of most of the main festivals exhibiting ethnographic film, considering the parallel evolution of programming and organisational practices across the globe. It also addresses the great value and challenges of ethnographic research tools for studying the wide-ranging field of film festivals. This volume is the first to collect long-term experiences of curating and exhibiting ethnographic film, as well as new approaches to the understanding of film festival practices. Its contributions reflect on curatorial practices within visual anthropology and their implications for ethnographic filmmaking, and they shed light on problems of cultural translation, funding, festival audiences, and the institutionalisation of ethnographic cinema. The book offers a novel perspective on film festivals as showcases for cinema, socio-cultural hubs, and distribution nodes. Aimed at anthropologists, media scholars, festival organisers, and documentary film professionals, it offers a starting point for the study of ethnographic film exhibition within its cultural and social contexts. Antropología audiovisual en América Latina. Ethnographies of 'On Demand' Films Alex Vailati, Gabriela Zamorano Villarreal, 2021-09-30 Over the last two decades the advent of cheap user friendly video technologies has contributed to a revolution in representational agency Videos are now made by production units that are at times composed of families churches musical groups community associations or other institutions Thus on demand videos produced and distributed within local and atypical networks profoundly shape contemporary urban imaginaries This book explores the intertwined relations among infrastructure technology and modernity through an ordinary yet little studied field of on demand audiovisual production which involves processes of negotiation and interaction between clients and commissioned video makers On demand films are considered as a space of collaboration and self representation that allows to reflect on the potential of fiction artifice and montage to render material desires aspirations and ideas of the future Desacatos Centro de Investigaciones y Estudios Superiores en Antropología Social (Mexico),

Media, Anthropology and Public Engagement Sarah Pink, Simone Abram, 2015-10-01 Contemporary anthropology is done in a world where social and digital media are playing an increasingly significant role where anthropological and arts practices are often intertwined in museum and public intervention contexts and where anthropologists are encouraged to engage with mass media Because anthropologists are often expected and inspired to ensure their work engages with public issues these opportunities to disseminate work in new ways and to new publics simultaneously create challenges as anthropologists move their practice into unfamiliar collaborative domains and expose their research to new forms of scrutiny In this volume contributors question whether a fresh public anthropology is emerging through these new practices

La antropología visual Ana Martínez Pérez, 2009-02 La antropología visual constituye un modelo de investigación social a medio camino entre el interés por contar y la necesidad social de la escucha De las diferentes fases de la investigación se puede obtener un producto audiovisual pensado para la difusión como puede ser un documental o reportaje en este libro se puede aprender a realizarlo Del mismo modo también a partir de una imagen fija o en movimiento es posible iniciar el análisis del proceso de recepción del mensaje Un texto visual activa la producción de discursos de sentidos de ahí su valor social La imagen denota y connota significados por eso no es tanto que valga más que mil palabras sino que a partir de ella pueden obtenerse mil palabras del sujeto que interpreta dicha imagen La imagen que no acaba nunca

Roger Canals, 2024-05-07 Vivimos en un momento de profundas transformaciones en el ámbito de la imagen y la cultura visual

Como puede ayudarnos la antropología a pensar el papel de las imágenes en nuestra vida cotidiana y al revés como podemos repensar algunos de los temas clásicos de la antropología: el ritual, el parentesco, la experiencia de la alteridad a partir de las nuevas formas de visualidad contemporánea. Con un lenguaje claro y riguroso Roger Canals redefine en este ensayo el campo de la antropología visual desde un punto de vista a la vez teórico y práctico. A partir de numerosos ejemplos de nuestro día a día y de experiencias extraídas de sus propias películas e investigaciones Canals analiza cómo nos relacionamos con y a través de las imágenes y cómo tejemos vínculos con los demás a través de la mirada y de los instrumentos de visión. Un libro que defiende apasionadamente las posibilidades de la imagen y de la antropología para entender y transformar nuestro mundo.

Antropología, 2010 La antropología visual Ana Mercedes Martínez Pérez, 2010 From Filmmaker Warriors to Flash Drive Shamans Richard Pace, 2018-10-22

From Filmmaker Warriors to Flash Drive Shamans broadens the base of research on Indigenous media in Latin America through thirteen chapters that explore groups such as the Kayapó of Brazil, the Mapuche of Chile, the Kichwa of Ecuador and the Ayuuk of Mexico among others as they engage video, DVDs, photography, television, radio and the internet. The authors cover a range of topics such as the prospects of collaborative film production, the complications of archiving materials and the contrasting meanings of and even conflict over embedded aesthetics in media production, i.e. how media reflects in some fashion the ownership, authorship and/or cultural sensibilities of its community of origin. Other topics include active audiences, engaging television programming in unanticipated ways, philosophical ruminations about the voices of the dead captured on digital recorders, the innovative uses of digital platforms on the internet to connect across generations and even across cultures and the overall challenges to obtaining media sovereignty in all manner of media production. The book opens with contributions from the founders of Indigenous Media Studies with an overview of global Indigenous media by Faye Ginsburg and an interview with Terence Turner that took place shortly before his death.

La búsqueda de una mirada Elisenda Ardévol, 2006-01-01

Esta obra es el resultado de una búsqueda personal sobre los límites y el alcance de la antropología visual. Una reflexión abierta sobre la metodología y análisis del cine etnográfico y sobre la representación audiovisual de la diversidad cultural. Un ensayo que indaga en los cruces entre cine y antropología explorando los usos del cine como instrumento de investigación, registro documental, modo de representación y medio de comunicación del conocimiento antropológico. Esta obra parte de la idea de que la mirada antropológica, la búsqueda de la comprensión de la diversidad y las semejanzas culturales no puede prescindir de una antropología de la mirada: de entender la imagen como objeto de estudio legítimo de la antropología y de acercarse a la comprensión del cine como proceso cultural y práctica social reclamando una mirada reflexiva en las imágenes que construimos sobre nuestra realidad social y cultural. La integración de la imagen como objeto de estudio y como técnica de investigación en antropología nos ofrecen un campo de experimentación en el cual la práctica y la teoría cinematográfica se entrelazan con la práctica y la teoría antropológica en la búsqueda de una mirada en una mirada que busca mirar. La representación de la alteridad cultural, el estudio etnográfico de los procesos de producción y recepción de los productos audiovisuales la construcción de una imagen antropológica la comunicación intercultural las prácticas de representación y el cine como acción social son algunos de los temas que se abordan en esta obra cuyo objetivo es acercar al lector y a la lectora a este campo de investigación y compartir desde el análisis de la práctica este diálogo abierto entre antropólogos sociólogos cineastas realizadores artistas técnicos de la comunicación y de la cultura visual pensadores y pensadoras sobre la imagen y su lugar en la creación de conocimiento
