Apocalypse 1945 The Destruction Of Dresden:

Apocalypse 1945 David John Cawdell Irving,1995 Apocalypse 1945 David Irving,2016-06-30 The Destruction of Dresden German Historians and the Bombing of German Cities Bas Benda-Beckmann,2025-10-01 Today strategic aerial bombardments of urban areas that harm civilians at times intentionally are becoming increasingly common in global conflicts This book reveals the history of these tactics as employed by nations that initiated aerial bombardments of civilians after World War I and during World War II As one of the major symbols of German suffering the Allied bombing left a strong imprint on German society Bas von Benda Beckmann explores how German historical accounts reflected debates on postwar identity and looks at whether the history of the air war forms a counternarrative against the idea of German collective guilt Provocative and unflinching this study offers a valuable contribution to German historiography The Barnes Review ,2008
The Journal of Historical Review ,2000 Eighth Air Force Donald L. Miller,2007 This volume looks at the history of the Eighth Air Force in Britain It covers the individual destinies the famous and notorious raids like Schweinfurt Regensburg and Dresden the social transformation of east Anglian villages by an influx of good time Yanks the POW camps and the endless controversy about the ethics of bombing Firestorm Marshall De Bruhl,2006 De Bruhl re creates the drama and horror of the 1945 Dresden bombings and offers the most cogent clear eyed appraisal yet of the tactics weapons strategy and rationale for the controversial attack Historical Representation and Historical Truth Wulf Kansteiner,Christoph Classen,2009 The Global Community Yearbook of International Law and Jurisprudence 2009 Volume I Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo,2010-10-22 a The set generally Please note that the following description applies to both volumes in the 2009 Yearbook not solely to Volume I The Global Community Yearbook is a one stop resource for all researchers studying international law generally or international criminal tribunals specifically The Global Community Yearbook appears annually in two volume editions of carefully chosen primary source material and corresponding expert commentary The general editor Professor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo employs her vast expertise in international law to select excerpts from important court opinions and also to choose experts from around the world who contribute essay guides to illuminate those cases Although the main focus is recent case law from the major international tribunals and regional courts the first volume of each year s edition always features expert articles by renowned scholars who address broader themes in international law themes that appear throughout the case law of the many courts covered by the series as a whole b This particular edition 2009 This year s edition of the Global Community Yearbook is restructured to update its format and to better respond to its objective The change affects the section entitled Decisions of International Courts and Tribunals all other sections will remain the same This section divided into twelve sub Sections presents annually the more significant international case law in the form of legal maxims systematically collected The elaboration of legal maxims extracted from the courts decisions and their systematic classification makes this year s edition of the Yearbook unique International courts and tribunals have developed remarkably in recent years and it is becoming increasingly difficult to follow the case law emanating from those jurisdictions without the help of an intermediary. The Yearbook and its unique changes fill this gap by serving as an intermediary between the case law and international scholars, practitioners, and students. In previous issues of the Yearbook, these legal maxims were prepared by referring both to the law and often extensively to the specific facts of the case. In the new format, the legal maxims will now distill the most important elements of judicial decisions and rely less heavily on the facts. The text of the legal maxims has been reduced to the minimum necessary for systematic classification, printing the website links for the case law. An introductory note on each international tribunal or court continues to be provided as a synopsis of their activity over the year. This reduction of the text of legal maxims better responds to the goals of the Yearbook to serve as a mediator and to provide complete coverage of case law from international courts and tribunals.

c Individual volumes

The first volume of the 2009 edition of Global Community Yearbook presents three categories of material wholly beneficial to any international law researcher: International tribunals court opinions excerpted with scholarly skill by General Editor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo; expert guidance on those cases in the form of commentary by globally recognized luminaries whom Ziccardi has chosen personally; and more broadly focused introductory essays by similarly prominent scholars whom Ziccardi has also selected for that purpose. In the introductory essays, those scholars take on the current controversial topics of the case against criminalizing hate speech, the global importance of human rights for environmental protection, the evolution of international environmental law, and the politics of global powers. Those incisive and knowledgeable introductory articles help frame the debates currently raging in international law. Before this volume leads the reader on to expert commentary on the noteworthy cases from this past year's dockets of the following tribunals: The International Court of Justice, The WTO Dispute Resolution System, The International Criminal Court, International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda. Ziccardi has arranged the sections of this volume according to that list of tribunals, and she has included a short targeted index for each of those sections, making any research in this volume efficient and fruitful.

Volume 2

This second volume of the 2009 edition of Global Community Yearbook gives researchers an illuminating tour through the varied and dynamic law of regional and organizational courts. In the court opinion excerpts and expert commentary that fill this volume, researchers will find detailed guidance on a rich diversity of legal topics, from whether the European Court of Human Rights is effective as the centerpiece of the European human rights protection system, to the jurisdictional challenges by respondent States under applicable investment agreements. On these questions and a host of others, this volume provides to students, scholars, and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates. The courts covered by this particular volume are: The Court of First Instance of the European Communities, The Court of Justice of the European Communities, The European Court of Human Rights, Inter American Court of Human Rights, International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes.
